SUBJECT.

Cancellation of Title-deed No. 1223.

Soliciting the sanction of Government for the _____ issued for a certain Inam in Tallavakuram, Binulipatam Taluk, Vizagapatam District on the ground of fraudulent misrepresentation on the part of the Inamdar at the time of the issue of the title deed.

Note.

This seems to be a clear case for cancellation of the title deed. The inamdar was guilty of fraud.

vide G.O. No. 841 of 29.10.90. M.

9.6.99 Since the existing title deed was, it is submitted to be cancelled. But as regards the issue of a fresh title deed granting the Inam for service, should it not be reported whether the service has continuously been maintained & that by the person proposed as grantee.

To the Inam Commissioner with the Encl. returned.

R.C. No. 180 of 99

Inam Commissioner's Office

Madras, 25 April 1899

From

The Honble Mr. J. Sturrock, Inam Commissioner.

To

The Secretary to Government,
Revenue Department.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit the marginally noted papers in original, for the orders of Government.

(1) Inam Collector
R.C. No. 116 of 99 dated 3.2.99
with (1) Enclosure.

(2) Inam Commissioner's
R.C. No. 180 of 99 dated 24.3.99

(3) Collector's R.C. No. 116 of 99 dated 8.4.99
with 2 enclosures.

(to be returned)

2. An Inam land measuring 10 putties wet and 2 putties dry according to the old account (acres 2.) situated in the village of Tallavalsa, Binlipatan Taluk, Vizagapatam District, was enfranchised as a personal Inam, under title deed No. 1223, with a quit rent of Rs. 14.0 in the name of

of one Butchaiya, on the strength of a statement filed by him at the Inam Settlement in 1862, that the Inam was granted to his father for the personal benefit of the family. It has now been ascertained from certain old accounts of 1835 and 1846 (submitted in original) that the Inam in question was originally granted for beating drums at the Festival of the village goddess, which is admitted by the surviving members of the family of the Inamdar Butchaiya. As it appears that the enfranchisement of the "Devadayam Inam" as Personal Inam" at the time of the Inam settlement was owing to the fraudulent misrepresentation

misrepresentation made by the then Inamdar, the Collector recommends that the title deed already issued, maybe cancelled, a fresh one being issued instead, to the present Inamdar on Service tenure. Two of the members of the family of Butchaiya object to the Cancellation of the Title-deed but it is reported that they do not urge any valid reasons in support of their contention, beyond stating that the title deed had been issued long ago. In these circumstances I request sanction for the issue of a fresh title-deed as recommended by the Collector and for declaring the one already issued, cancelled, as it is reported ^{to} be not forthcoming.

I have the honour to be
Sir
Your most obedient servant

J. Minsh
Inam Commissioner.

Order No. 182 d/ 19th May '99

The Inam Commissioner's proposal to declare the title-deed already issued cancelled, is approved. But as regards the issue of a fresh title-deed to the present inam-dars on service tenure, it should be reported whether the service has continuously been maintained, and ~~that~~ by the persons proposed as franchisees.
