The Under Secy's query on C.no 2733 of 99 "Should not the authority sanctioning the acquisition be given"?

To the Under Secy.

The authority sanctioning the acquisition is generally given in the last column of the notification. The Dy. Conservator's letter which is quoted in the column of 'Remarks' in the notice submitted by the Collr. is presumably the application made to the Collr. for the construction of the quarters. Under sec 148 of the Forest Code, the Collr. can sanction expenditure chargeable to capital account when it does not exceed Rs 500.
