THE SECRETARY TO THE COMMISSIONER OF

SIR,

From the 17th, I have been suffering from severe malarious fever and I am so much weakened that, even after the recovery, I may not be able to attend to my duties till I take rest and have a change of climate and recover my normal strength. In these circumstances, I have the honor to request that the Board be pleased to recommend the grant of two months privilege leave to which I am eligible, to be availed of from or after the 10th Proximo.

2. I beg to add that on the former occasion of taking leave, I had to to Cancel a portion of my privilege leave under circumstances, of which the Board is aware. From the present Condition of my health, I do not think leave less than 2 months would give me perfect rest and therefore request the Board's favor of early issue of orders for relieving me about the 10th.

3. I subscribe below the usual form of declaration.

"I hereby declare that I have no intention of retiring or of taking Furlough, Special leave, Subsidiary leave, Leave on Private Affairs, or Leave on Medical certificate, for three months after my return to duty."

I have the honor to be
