Resolution

In Government order
No 964, dated 10th February 1897, the Board of Revenue in this department was requested to spare the services of a clerk for the Executive Committee of the Andhra Jamma Charitable Relief Fund, Madras Branch, and it was stated that the clerk selected would be placed on Special duty, so as to enable the Board

Board to appoint a Substitute. Clerk Hari Das, whose pay was Rs. 45, was accordingly deputed and in the arrangements which were consequently made in the office, Mr. Karayana Das who was previously drawing Rs. 25 was promoted to Rs. 40 and told off to perform the arduous duties of the four clerks of the Famine Commissioners, it being understood that he would be entitled to the full pay of the appointment. The Accountant-General, however, refused to pass such protem allowances to this and other clerks in the arrangement, at first on the ground that under Article 110 of the Civil Service Regulations full pay was not admissible unless the appointment lasted more than six months, and when this condition

Condition was fulfilled, on the ground that under a ruling of Government 1877, only acting allowances were admissible in the case of substitutes for officers on famine duty. The applicability of the ruling of 1877, to the case of appointments made during the recent famine, was then under the consideration of Government, and it was finally decided that the above ruling should be observed on the present occasion also, but that retrospective effect should not be given to it as such a course might inflict hardship on low paid subordinates. Under this order, Clerk Karayana Das seemed to be entitled to the full pay of his appointment at least until the date of Government order 2 October 1897 declaring the ruling of 1877 to be

Bo he applicable, but the accountant Ha General held that the effect of the ac Government order was only to prevent me retrenchments being made in cases in where full pay had already been wa drawn and not to allow full pr pay where it had not yet been drawn. per cls 2. In the case of Clerk Karayana it was the Board's duty to submit that he when appointing him it was under ap the impression that under Government G order 964, dated 10 February 1897, on full pay of the appointment would ac be available for the substitute, at and that if it had known beforehand that subproblem allowances -las were inadmissible under any circumstances, it would have en made other arrangements so that as to give the clerk appointed as tour clerk a large increment to to his pay than the acting allowance of Rs 8 per mensem. His work was of a specially arduous nature as he had to accompany the Commissioner on tour through the affected districts for nearly a year, and considering the high prices which obtained in the affected tracts and the serious inconveniences incidental to travelling in such tracts, the Board considered that he fully deserves the full pay of the appointment which he holds viz Rs 40 per mensem. In these circumstances the Board requests that the Government be pleased to autho-rise the accountant General to pass subproblem allowances to Clerk Karayana as a special case, for the period of his employ-ment in the arrangements Conse-quent on the deputing of a clerk

Note.

The Provincial Committee of the I. F. C. R. Fund having requested Govt to assist the Committee with the services of a clerk, the Govt asked the Board of Revenue to state whether it can spare one from the Settlement Branch. The Govt further stated that the clerk so deputed will be placed on special duty so as to enable the Board to appoint a substitute.

The Board of Revenue having answered in the affirmative, as one of its clerks, T. Hari Rao, B.A., was placed on special duty with the Executive Committee of the I. F. C. R. Fund, Madras Branch.

2. The Board of Revenue now requests sanction to the grant of subsidium allowances ^{to the clerk} in the arrangements consequent on such deputations. It is permissible under the note to Art. 110 of the C.S. R. as much as the special duty in the case

On

It has lasted for more than six months. But in September last, the Accountant-General brought to the notice of Govt that in 1877 the Govt had ruled that only acting allowances should be paid to the substitutes appointed in the place of officers absent on famine duty and enquired whether it was the intention of Govt that the said ruling should be enforced in the famine of 1896-97. At the same time he pointed out that under the note to Art 110 of the C. S. R. the grant of Substitution allowances were admissible in all cases in which the deputation was for six months or more. The Govt thereupon ruled (please see Lr. H. P. B. No. 101 in G.O. 5120/2.10.97) that the ruling of 1877 should be adhered to. But Substitution allowances had in most of the cases been drawn already, and as a retrenchment in such cases by retrospective effect to the 1st of October would act hardly on poor paid subordinates, the Ld. of 2nd October was not given retrospective effect.

3. In the Board's Office, however, the persons who acted in the arrangement consequent on the deputation of a clerk to work under the ^{Madras} Local Committee of the J. F. C. R. Fund, did not in the first instance draw any substitution allowances because it was not known that the special duty will last for six months or more; and when this period expired, the Accountant-General declined to pass such allowances with reference to the ruling of Govt referred to in para 2 above. (It is somewhat doubtful if the deputation of the clerk on special duty to work under the J. F. C. R. Fund Committee, Madras, can be held to be deputation or famine duty and as such falling within the rulings in question.)

4. The person primarily affected by the A. G.'s ruling is the town clerk of the Commission (Famine). He was getting Rs 25, and was promoted to Rs 40 in the arrangement.

arrangement and was posted to do duty as tour. clerk under the Famine Commission. He accompanied the Commission on tour through the affected districts and it is reported that his work was of a specially arduous nature.
The Board of Rev. therefore considers that he fully deserves the appointment which he holds viz; Rs 40.
The Clerk draws an additional allowance of Rs 3 per mensem as acting allowance; ~~but~~ ^{but} he was appointed to ~~post~~ the post under the impression that full pay would be admissible and the Board of Rev. states that had it been known that this was not admissible, it would have made other arrangements so as to give the tour. clerk a larger increment for his pay than the acting allowance.
The Board of Rev. accordingly rejects that sub-protein allowance may be authorized to be paid to the clerk as ~~a~~ a special allowance.
The Bd. of Rev. is no account retrospective effect allowed and having regard to the fact that ~~the~~ the persons who acted in famine deputation arrangements in the affected districts had already drawn sub-protein allowances which the Govt. has decided not to retract; the Board's recommendation may, it is submitted, be approved, ~~and it would be as~~ well to authorize the A. B. C. to pass sub-protein allowances in the arrangements consequent on the deputation of the clerk to work under the Provincial Committee of the I. F. C. R. Fund, so that all persons in the arrangement may benefit. The increased cost will not be considerable as the clerk m/s 40 acting m/s 45 will get the full pay whether he is acting or ~~not~~ so also the clerk m/s 20 acting m/s 25, while the clerk m/s 15 acting m/s 20 will get an increase of Re 1 if the arrangement be made sp. time sp. time
