Resolution

Replying to the Official Memorandum from Government No.
83 dated 1st April 1898, regarding the investiture of Mr. F. S. White with the powers of an Inspector temporarily the Board beg to report that it recommended this course as the Assistant Inspector in charge of the semi circle was at the time it made the proposal engaged in Supervising the Ganja harvest on the Javadi

Javadi hills and the temporary deputation of Mr. White was the only convenient arrangement it could make for his relief. As the harvest is now over the Assistant Inspector will be able to attend to the Cases and Mr.
White may return to Palmaneri.
The necessity for empowering him therefore no longer exists.

no. 887 of 19-2-98.

Para 23 - The Insp^r has the rest of his circle to look after with 11 Sub. Insp^rs Ranges and two Parties, and this together with Akhari sales recently held or takes his time off the work in hand on the hills. As a special case therefore, I think he should at least for one month from now or perhaps six weeks at most be relieved entirely of the duties of his circle outside the Jawadi hills in order that the whole of his time and the attention may be given to the Hills alone. In anticipation of the Bd's approval therefore I am directing him not to leave the Hills until he has personally satisfied himself that every bale of Ganja is in the store house at Hannamabady.

Para. 24. In the meantime I beg the Board will approve of my placing the Senior Assistant Inspector of the Ennore Circle, where work is now light temporarily in charge of the Arni Circle exclusive of the Jawadi Hills and Hannamabady store shed, until at least the 31st proximo.

Board's Resolⁿ thereon - no 859 of 6-3-98.

Para 12. Arrangements have been made for the relief of the Inspector by deputing the Asst.

Asst Inspector of the Chittor Circle to assist him, and Govt is being asked as a special case to grant him powers temporarily depute into cases.

Para 12 of its Progs No. 859 of 6-3-98 to which reference the deputation of the Assistant Inspector, Chittor Circle, to relieve the Inspector of the Arni circle; but it does not explain whether an officer qualified to exercise the powers cannot be deputed from any other circle.

Para 2 of G.O.

821 distinctly stated 17-11-94 that the Board should not recommend the investing of an Acting Assistant Inspector with the powers of an Inspector. Yet such a recommendation is made in the current and no valid reason has been assigned for it. It will be noticed further that the Acting ^{officer} man has not passed Test A (Crimit is thought unnecessary to refer it ^{the order} back again.
