Letter No. xx

From

E. Scott Esquire,

Acting Collector of Madras.

To

The Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, Madras.

Sir,

With reference to the application of Mr R. Raju Bai Bahadur V. Jagannatha Row Dantulu for leave, for 1 month and 27 days leave, and to your Telegram of the 21st Inst.
I have the honour to suggest, that Mr R. Raju
K. Nara Simha Row Dantulu, Head Quarters Deputy Collector may be put in charge of the Treasury, during the absence of the former officer on leave, and that a Substitute may be sent to take charge of the Head Quarters Division. Mr R. Raju K. Nara Simha Row Dantulu has already undergone one month's Treasury training under the Treasury Deputy Collector of Vizagapatnam, and in his letter no 6989 of the 20th May 1898 the Accountant-General has desired me to make early arrangements to enable ^{him} to take ~~Deputy Collector~~ to Complete the Course of three months laid down in Government Order no. 34, Revenue of 23rd January 1889.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

S. L. S.

Acting Collector.

Note

The Collector of Bellary forwards this to the Board of Revenue an application received by him from Mr. V. Jagannatha Rao Pantulu, Treasury Deputy Collector, for privilege leave for one month and 27 days from or after the 23rd inst. Jagannatha Rao reports that he has taken no leave since August 1896 and that what he now applies for he requires urgently.

2. Mr. Scott, the Asst. Collector, in forwarding the application remarks that personally he has no objection to the leave being granted. He does not say whether a substitute will be required or not. Ordinarily the Collector has to arrange for the work of a Deputy Collector on short leave without the employment of a substitute.

... but well one is one of the "affected" districts and it is very doubtful whether this can be managed now. Orders are therefore solicited as to (1) whether a reference on this point should be made to the Collector or (2) whether Jagannatha Rao may merely be informed that he cannot have the leave unless and until the season improves and the Collector can manage without the employment of a substitute or (3) whether the leave may be granted and a substitute appointed. If the leave is to be granted it is submitted that it is desirable to require Jagannatha Rao to take it from or after the 2nd June when the services of G. Narayana Swami Aiyar (No 20 in the acting list) now acting in Madras and whose acting appointment terminates on that date

In the G.O. marked I above, the Govt sanctioned the grant of privilege leave for one month and 27 days to Mr. V. Jagannatha Rao, Treasury Deputy Collector, Nellore, and posted in his place Mr.
G. Narayanaiah Aiyar, whose acting appointment in Madura would cease on the 2nd proximo. The G.O. in question has already issued but the minute of appointment prepared in accordance therewith (with the notes) is now in circulation.

Since read and put up

2 The Collector of Nellore now requests (before seeing the above G.O.) that his Head Quarter Deputy Collector,
H. Narasimha Rao
Pantulu

Pantulu may be placed in charge of the Bellary Treasury during Jagannadha Rao's absence on leave. Mr Scott says that Narasimha Rao has already undergone a month's Treasury training and that the Asst General has asked him ^{to arrange to} "complete the course of three months" laid down in G.O. No. 34 Rev. dt. 13th January 1889.

3. It is submitted that Narayanaswami Aiyar was posted to the charge of the Bellary Treasury not because he was specially qualified for it but because no other arrangement could conveniently be made. There seems to be therefore no objection to posting Narasimha Rao to the charge of the Treasury vice Jagannadha Rao and Narayanaswami Aiyar on "General Duty" vice Narasimha Rao. To avoid double circulation and delay a draft G.O. and minute of appointment are herewith submitted.

submitted. The issue of the minute already circulated will be withheld in case the present proposals meet with approval.

The change proposed is that Narayanaswami Aiyar should go to Bellary as H.D. & T. Dy. Collr. instead of T. Dy. Collr. Narasimha Rao (as H.D. & T. Dy. Collr.) Pantulu from Gamp as T. Dy. Collr. vice Jagannadha Rao on leave. There seems to be no objection to this arrangement.

I see no objection to it
