SUBJECT.

I shall see that no G.O. embodying rules or orders having the force of law or are likely to be taken into court are issued without the bearing dates during which there is no properly constituted authority. It would appear that strictly speaking Requesting to arrange that every G.O. the validity of which might be called in question at law shall not bear a date prior to the date of appointment of a successor to the Honble Mr. Goss and subsequent to the instant.

speaking no G.O. could be issued ^{with} ~~on~~ the dates above referred to.

Since writing the above it has been ascertained (1) that in the L. & M. Dept it is proposed not to issue any order till a new member is appointed and

(2) that in the Public & Dept they have kept back all important papers i.e. papers which are not merely routine.

Orders are solicited
