ACCOUNTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE MADRAS 25 APR 98

To

The Secretary to the Commissioner of Land Revenue, Nilgiris
through the Accountant General, Fort St. George, Madras.

Sir,

I have the honour to submit the following for the orders of the Board and Government:—

My Treasury Deputy Collector M K Ry D. Venkatasastri garu applied for two months and one day's privilege leave and also for the concession leave under G.O. No. 982 Financial dt. 25-11-97 In G.O. No. 963 Mis. dt. 24-2-98 the Government sanctioned the former but deferred to pass orders on the admissibility of the latter leave. In the mean-time time Dr K Ry D. Venkatasastri obtained a Medical certificate for 3 months from the District surgeon and stayed away from office from the 10th February '98 and went away to Masulipatam his native place on the 20th idem. The Government telegraphed to me on 2nd April '98 informing me that Venkatasastri's application for special leave was inadmissible. As according to the Medical Certificate Venkatasastri required 3 months leave as against 2 months and 1 day granted to him, a telegram was sent to him on 3rd April '98 informing him of the orders of Government and asking him to wire if any extension was wanted. No reply having been received from him until 7th April '98, I addressed Government in my letter B&G. No. 305 dated 7th April '98 for orders under article 257 A. C. S. R. The Government in its order No 1632 dated 9th April '98 Dis. Rev. directed that Venkatasastri should not be permitted to rejoin his appointment until he produces a certificate from the District surgeon as to his fitness to ~~his~~ duty. This order was received at Anantapur on 10th April '98 during the Easter holidays and there was no time to communicate it to D. Venkatasastri even by wire as he had ~~to leave~~ Masulipatam by that time.

Dr K Ry D. Venkatasastri's leave of two months and one day would under ordinary circumstances have expired on the 10th April '98 and he should have joined his duty on the forenoon of the 11th current; but as the 11th and the 12th were Easter holidays he invalided himself of them under article 252 of the Civil Service Regulations.

3. Mr Venkatasastri arrived at Kurnool a few minutes after the 12th April. The Government order requiring him to appear before the District Surgeon was sent to him that same night by a special messenger to be delivered to him at the Railway Station immediately on the arrival of the train at 9-15 P.M. so that if he be so inclined he might go by the next 3-35 A.M. mail to Guntakal where the District Surgeon's office is at present located on account of plague Inspection. Mr Venkatasastri could not take delivery of the same that night as it was too late. The order was delivered to him the next day (13th April '98) morning.

Later

Later on in the forenoon of the same day, Mr Venkatasastri reported himself to me and requested that he could be got a certificate of fitness from the District Surgeon, he should be considered to have returned to duty that day so that he may not lose his privilege leave allowances. I agreed to his proposal because I could not allow him to actually take charge in the face of the Government order. Mr Venkatasastri took the next morning (14th April '98) mail to Guntakal and appeared before the District Surgeon who after examining him declared him on the 15th April '98 fit to return to duty and he accordingly took charge of the Treasury from the acting incumbent M.R.Ry. Rao Bahadur Mr. Arumugam Pillai Avergal

Noli

The Collector of Anantapur, submits thro' the Accl General and the Board of Revenue the following case for the orders of Govt:-

In January last MRR. D Venkata Sastri, Treasury Deputy Collector, Anantapur produced a medical certificate of unfitness for duty for three months and in Febr. he was granted privilege leave for 2 months and 1 day for which alone, it was reported, he was at the time eligible. This leave he availed of from the 10th Febr and therefore expired with the 10th of april last. as however the medical certificate declared that he would be unfit for duty for three months, the Govt in G.O. misc nº 1632 Rev dy 9th April 1898 directed that he should not be allowed to join his this appointment unless and until he produced a certificate of fitness for duty. This he did on the 15th of April and he took charge of his appointment in the forenoon of the next day. The concession now is how the interval of five days between the 10th and the 16th April should be treated.

2. Of the five days above referred to the first two were Gazetted holidays and the Collector is not sure how these should be treated. He states that there is one days' privilege leave standing to Venkatasastri's credit and if necessary an additional day may also be allowed him in consideration mainly of the famine work done by him (the Collector) staff. He does not say how the remaining three days should be treated.

3. The Acct General considers that Venkatasastri's privilege leave may be extended by a single day but that "he should be held to have overstayed his privilege leave by four days for which he is not entitled to any allowance". The Board points out that the Acct General's views must be accepted "unless the Govt is pleased to grant him special exemption".

4. It is not clear to what exemption the Board refers. The only concession that can be made in Venkatasastri's behalf is apparently to bring him under the Special Famine leave rules. A proposal to do this has already been negatived by Govt. A draft G.O. expressing concurrence in the Acct Genl's views and excluding Venkatasastri's leave by one day is accordingly submitted for approval.

In the circumstances reported the Govt is pleased to sanction the extension by one day of the privilege leave granted to M.R.R. D. Venkata Sastri in G.O. misc no 963 Rev: dy 24th Feb 1898. The proposal of this officer to bring this case under the famine concession rules having already been negatived by Govt, he should, as pointed out by the Acct General, be considered to have overstayed his leave by four days for which he is not entitled to any allowance.
