The Under-Secretary.

Sir,

In obedience to the Secretary's orders, I gave over to the Head Clerk, Rev. Dept. on the 14th inst; such of the papers as were in my possession connected with Mr Ross's special Duty.

This afternoon I again delivered to him other papers which were removed from Mr Ross's house, and which I was required to take charge of by Mr Cowie, the District Magistrate.

As I have no work on hand at present I beg to state that I am awaiting orders regarding the future of the establishment consisting of two peons and myself who were employed under Mr Ross. In the meantime I most respectfully beg to request that, in order that I may be able to draw the Travelling Allowance, Pay and Hill Allowance for April of the two peons and myself, early orders may be passed on the application recently sent in by Mr Ross for the further further retention of the Establishment till the end of September next.

I beg to remain,
Sir,
Your most obedient and humble servt

Ootacamund.

NOTE FOR THE UNDER SECRETARY.

Mr Cole

The members of the late Mr Ross' office establishment are still here — viz. one clerk and two peons. The question as to what should be done with them was raised immediately after Mr Ross' death but it was thought that the matter should be held
