3. The son requests the that in such cases as this

4. The daughter on the other hand requests that the yeomiah may be registered in her name jointly along with her brother with a view to enable them to enjoy equally the emoluments granted for the same. Her reasons for the joint registration are—

(a) That according to the Muhammadan law daughters are also entitled to a share in the inam lands of their fathers, in support of which she encloses a public copy of a judgment of the Nellore District Court in Appeal Suit No. 74 of 1889.

(b) That the inam lands were granted for the maintenance of the family and for offering prayers for the prosperity of Government.

The inam register, however, shows that the lands in question were confirmed to Muḥammad Yāsīm Sāhib in December 1860 for reading prayers in the Jumma mosque and that the inam was to be continued permanently so long as the service is performed.
