No. 83 Miscellaneous

READ..... again the following Board's Proceedings, No 5816 Misc dated 28th September 1898.

Read the following letter from H. C. D. Harding, Esquire, Ag Collector of Cuddapah, Ref Current No 1428 of letter dated 7th September 1898:-

I have the honor to report that A. Adimula Inoodeliar, Block holder under the Kurnool - Cuddapah Canal in M. Lukkur Village, Proddatur Taluq, requests that the assessment on his block lands due for Fasli 1306 and 1307 may be collected in three equal instalments.

2. It appears from previous correspondence that his prayer for the remission of the dry assessment on the block lands for Dasti 1306 was not recommended by my predecessor, Mr A. C. Tate, who in letter No 5256 dated 7th September 1897 reported that the petitioner did obtain some harvest and also a large quantity of fodder for which there was a large demand, the season then being very unfavorable. It was also urged by him that the block rules being already very strict, further concessions were not called for. The Board of Revenue thereupon, declined to grant remission of dry assessment - vide B. P. No 2404 dated 5th April 1898. The petitioner then applied to Mr Vaughan for remission of dry assessment on the block for Dasti 1307 and Mr Vaughan refused to comply with his his request.

3. From the remarks of the Special Deputy Collector in charge of Canal made in para 20 of his half-yearly report printed in B. P. No 210 dated 17th June 1898, I am led to consider that the petitioner's case is a deserving one from all accounts. The report runs as follows: "I am sorry, however, that the holder of block No 13 of Maidankur (121.51 aers) seems rather unfortunate, in as much as, although he well cleared and ploughed up about half the extent of his block and partly manured it and although he has been raising different crops on it both wet and dry for the last two years, his endeavours have not yet been attended with proportionate success, some unforeseen accident or other, such as a heavy fall of rain immediately immediately after irrigation of his crops, or want of water in the canal at a time when he badly wanted it for his second crop or dry season indigo occurring, and seriously affecting the outcome of his crops. He must have spent at least from Rs 1500 to Rs 2000 in connection with his block and even now he maintains three pairs of bullocks of his own, with which he works on the block; and my own humble opinion is that such rare cases of failure require sympathetic consideration and encouragement from the local officers in the shape of remission of even the dry assessment for the first few years of proved failure.

So. In view of the above opinion expressed by the special officer in charge of the Canal operations, I consider that some concessions are are necessary to encourage block holders and recommended that the amount of arrear due on his block land may be ordered to be collected in 2 instalments. He had to pay Rs 313-3-1 as detailed in the margin of which he has since obtained loan, I presume, and paid Rs 200 and there remains a balance of only Rs 113-3-1. One half of this amount may be collected along with the kists of Tasli 1308 and the other half in Tasli 1309.

Resolution No. 5-815 dated 28.9.98.

The Collector is requested to report details of cultivation and outcome in respect of the block land for Tasli 1307.

In reply to Board's Proceedings No. 5816 ^{mis} dated the 28th September 1898, (Revenue Settlement) I have the honor to append below, the details ^{*} copy attached of cultivation and outturn in respect of the block of Adimulam Mudaliar for fasli 1307.

Resolution No. 83 ^{mis} dated 4.1.99

The papers read above will be submitted for the orders of Government.

2. A block of waste lands under the Kurnool. Cuddapah Canal, measuring 121.51 acres, was assigned to one Adimula Mudali in fasli 1306. He brought about 69 acres under cultivation in that year. He, however, alleged that that the crops had entirely failed and requested that the land revenue might be remitted. As the Collector reported that the failure was only partial, remission was refused and of the amount due for the year, Rs 78 have been paid, leaving a balance of Rs 78-8-0.

3. The area cultivated in fasli 1307, was 50.61 acres and it is stated that some of the crops failed altogether while the others yielded an outturn of only 2 annas, the total value of the produce being estimated at Rs 103. The ryot has paid Rs 121-8-0 for the fasli, leaving a balance of Rs 34-11-1.

4. The special Deputy Collector has remarked that the blockholder has undergone great trouble and expense in bringing the land under cultivation.

Cultivation, that he has not been able to obtain a good outturn owing to some unforeseen accident or other, such as, heavy rain immediately after irrigation of his crops, or want of water for second crop - or dry season indigo, and that his case deserves sympathetic consideration and encouragement.

Having regard to the Dy Collector's opinion, the Collector recommends that the collection of the unpaid balance of Rs 113 may be postponed, one-half the amount being recovered along with the Kists of the current fasli and the other half with the Kists of fasli 1309.

5. In the circumstances stated, the Board recommends the grant of the concession as a special case
