To

The Hon'ble Mr. G. Stokes C.S.

Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras

Sir,

In continuation of my letter No 23 dated 4 August 98 applying for furlough, I have the honour to ask permission to transfer charge to my successor in Madras if my furlough is granted. It is essential that I should proceed to Madras and Ooty before I leave and to return to Vizianagarum will put the Estate to unnecessary expense.

I have the honour to be
Sir

Your most obedient servant

W. A. Willock

Collector & Guardian.

Letter No 25. D. 8 August 1898

The Rev Dept (U.O.)

Subject

Requesting permission to transfer charge to successor in Madras.

Rev. Dept

From the Collector of the Vizianagaram zamindari
No. 25 of 8.8.98 (C. no. 5679).

To Secretary

An order sanctioning Mr. Willock's application for leave, which came from the Public Department for counter-initials, was returned yesterday (U.O.) together with a notification appointing Mr. Gillman ^{to act} for him during his absence.

2. Mr. Willock is coming here, and as his return to Vizianagaram merely to hand over charge will put the zamindari to unnecessary expense, he proposes to hand over charge at Madras. This proposal may be approved (vide precedent under G.O. No.
1991 of 6.5.98)

3. Mr. Gillman
appears to be in the Kurnool District. It is not known whether he will proceed to Vizianagaram by sea via Madras on by the East Coast Railway direct. In the former case he may receive charge at Madras in person and in the latter at Kurnool by telegram. A draft order is put up on the docket sheet of the current leaving this point to be settled by the officers concerned. As Mr. Willock is coming here soon, he may ^{perhaps} be consulted before the order issues.

Please see a draft ~~order~~ d.o. to Mr. Gillman warning him that Mr. Willock will hand over charge at Madras. In d.o. no 557 of the Public Dept. (below) Mr. Gillman says that his joining time extending 513 days, he has to relieve Mr. Willock in the forenoon on the 25th instant, and that he has wired to him to ~~do so~~ hand over charge accordingly.

Please issue as ~~revised~~ As it now appears that Gillman has handed over charge there is of course no need to give him the option of handing over at Kurnool!!

We can arrange with Willock finally when he comes up.
