To the Under Secretary.

It is submitted that the City office looked into the indexes from 1890 to 1897 and the General Record office into those from 1870 to 1890. No precedent, however, could be traced in which the Govt. accepted an assignment of land made by a private person. In the year 1891, the Maharaja of Vizianagaram offered to give all the land required for the East Coast Railway free of charge. But it appears that no formal orders were passed on the offer and the matter was dropped. (Vide telephonic message from the P.W.D.).

G.O. 841
 5.2.91.

See
 I submit the Collector may be asked to report on the matter. It may be looking a gift horse in the mouth but at the same time the donor
 may be playing some game of his own - the land may not be his
 in commission that it may be after.
