ber of persons, or the whole community of a village in very many minute shares, Government on the recommendation of the Board of Revenue directed that each share should be separately registered, and treated as a separate allowance (vide para. 2 of G. O. No. 1886, Revenue, dated 20th November 1872). In conformity to this order, the said sum of Rs. 637 was distributed among the respective shareholders upon verification of title to the claims, which were duly registered as separate cases in this office registers opened at the time, and individual shares below Rs. 20 per annum were commuted under the rules as required in the said Government order excluding the sum of Rs. 606-9-7, on account of commutations, sanctioned from time to time, and lapses owing to deaths of certain other shareholders, there at present remains a sum of Rs. 30-8-8 in the enjoyment of the 6 shareholders enumerated in column 2, out of Rs. 636-3-3 or Rs. 637 in round figures originally sanctioned.

34	Mulugu Kuma- raswamy.	No records are available regarding the date of original grant. Chittitar Poligar's resume granted by former Governments (a history of which is given in Board's Proceedings, No. 5613, dated 11th September 1865) was resumed by British Government and converted into a money allowance of Rs. 64-1-2 in G. O., No. 344, Revenue, dated 20th March 1873.	No Sanad ..	No records are available to supply this information; but a history of the case is given in Board's Proceedings, No. 5613, dated 11th September 1865.	Cannot be specified.	Rs. 27 0 7	Compensation for resumed Chittitar Poligar's resume granted for life of the shareholders.	Under the authority conveyed in paragraph 2 of G.O., No. 1386, Revenue, dated 20th November 1872, the money allowance of Rs. 64-1-2, originally sanctioned in the name of Mulugu Appayya, Jugu Appayya, and (3) Mulugu Kumaraswamy, the present holder, 1/2 share of Rs. 27-0-7, was resumed by Government, dated 22nd July 1876, so that the other 1/2 share of Rs. 27-0-7 is in the enjoyment of the present holder for life, commutation not having been sanctioned in his case, in the above orders, the allowance being over Rs. 20. This case, it would appear, was omitted to be included in the sum of Rs. 637, sanctioned in G. O., No. 2783, Revenue, dated 13th October 1866, and hence a separate sanction was obtained in G. O., No. 344, dated 20th March 1873.	Compensation for resumed Chittitar Poligar's resume granted for life of the shareholders.
35	Penubarti Laksh- mayya.	No records are available regarding the date of the original grant. Turwar Poligar's resume granted by former Governments (a history of which is given in Board's Proceedings, No. 5613, dated 11th September 1865) was resumed by British Government and converted into a money allowance of Rs. 8-0-0 per annum in the name of Penubarti, Rapar taluk, in G. O., No. 1822, Revenue, dated 21st November 1870.	No Sanad ..	No records are available to supply this information, but a history of the case is given in Board's Proceedings, No. 5613, dated 11th September 1865.	Cannot be specified.	4 0 0	Compensation for resumed Turwar Poligar's fees granted for life of the shareholders.	The money allowance of Rs. 8 sanctioned in G. O., No. 1822, dated 21st November 1870, was distributed into two equal shares of Rs. 4 each, in the name of Penubarti Ramanna and Penubarti Lakshmayya under the authority conveyed in para. 2 of G. O., No. 1386, dated 20th November 1872, regarding the registry of each shareholder's claim, as a separate case. Kumanna's share having lapsed to Government by his death on 13th September 1872, the other shareholder, Penubarti Lakshmayya, is at present in the enjoyment of the remaining half share of Rs. 4 (vide this office statement No. 4510, dated 15th December 1881, and Board's Proceedings, thereon, No. 191, Misc., dated 14th January 1882). This case also, it would appear, was omitted to be included in the sum of Rs. 637 sanctioned in G. O., No. 2783, Revenue, dated 13th October 1866, and hence a separate sanction was obtained in G. O., No. 1822, dated 21st November 1870.	Compensation for resumed Turwar Poligar's resume granted for life of the shareholder.

P. 1,540 0 0	For life; to lapse altogether on death.	G.O., 3rd Dec. 1870, No. 1919.	Compensation in lieu of lands resumed.	Juppalli Lakshma Row was the ancient zemindar of Udayagiri; but when he was disposed of by Muhammadan Jagirdar, an allowance of 100 pagodas per month was granted to him, which was continued to his son Appa Row on the cessation of the Carnatic. In 1812 the allowance was reduced to Rs. 100 per mensem and continued to Appa Row's adopted son, Lakshmana Row. On his death in 1818 the allowance was continued to his mother Venkammah at Rs. 385 a month. On her death two-thirds of the grant was continued to Juppalli Chenna Row. The present recipient is Chenna Row's son.
18	Lakshman Achayya.	11th November 1797..	No. Sanad. The grant was confirmed by Government on 18th April 1823.	Vizella Chinna Narain Raja. Rs. 636-2-4 for the redemption of which a lump sum of Rs. 637 was sanctioned as money compensation on to other persons in G.O., No. 2755, Revue, dated 13th October 1866, having originally been held by a number of persons, or the whole community of a village in very many minutes shares, Government on the recommendation of the Board of Revenue directed that each share should be separately registered, and treated as a separate allowance (vide para. 2 of G.O., No. 1586, Revenue, dated 20th November 1872). In conformity with this order, the said sum of Rs. 637 was distributed among the respective shareholders upon verification of titles to the shares, which were duly registered as separate cases in this office registers opened at the time, and individual shares below Rs. 20 per annum were commuted under the rules as required in the said Government order. Exceeding the sum of Rs. 637 on account of commutation sanctioned from time to time, and lapses owing to deaths of certain other shareholders, there at present remains a sum of Rs. 636-2-3 on Rs. 637 in round figures originally sanctioned. ter of persons, or the whole community of a village in very many minute shares, Government on the recommendation of the Board of Revenue directed that each share should be separately registered, and treated as a separate allowance (vide para. 2 of G.O., No. 1585, Revenue, dated 20th November 1872). In conformity with the order, the said sum of Rs. 637 was distributed among the respective shareholders upon verification of titles to the claims, which were duly registered as separate cases in this office registers opened at the time, and individual shares below Rs. 20 per annum were commuted under the rules as required in the said Government order. Excluding the sum of Rs. 631-2-3, on account of commutations, sanctioned from time to time, and lapses owing to deaths of certain other shareholders, there at present remains a sum of Rs. 5 in the enjoyment of the 2 shareholders enumerated in column 2, out of Rs. 636-2-3 or Rs. 637 in round numbers, which are sanctioned. Under the author-mer Governments (a history of which is given in Board's Proceedings, No. 5613, dated 11th September 1865) was resumed by British Government and converted into a money allowance of Rs. 54-1-2 in G. O., No. 344, Revenue dated 20th March 1873.

The shares of Nos. 1 and 2 being below Rs. 20 per annum, were committed in Board's Proceedings, No. 1775, dated 28th June 1875, and G.O., No. 1099, Revenue, dated 22nd July 1875, so that the other $\frac{1}{2}$ share of Rs. 27-0-7 is in the enjoyment of the present holder for life, commutation not having been sanctioned in his case, in the above orders, the allowance being over Rs. 20. This case, it would appear, was omitted to be included in the sum of Rs. 637, sanctioned in G.O., No. 2785, Revenue, dated 13th October 1866, and hence a separate sanction was obtained in G.O., No. 344, dated 20th March 1873.

Under the authority conveyed in paragraph 2 of G.O. No. 1586, Revenue, dated 20th November 1872, the money allowed in the Revenue Accounts, 54-1-2, originally sanctioned in the name of Muzlu Appaya, was distributed into 3 shares, viz., (1) Mulagu Appayya $\frac{1}{2}$ share or Rs. 13-8-4, (2) Mulagu Subhaya $\frac{1}{2}$ share or Rs. 13-8-3, and (3) Mulagu Kumaraswamy, the present holder, $\frac{1}{2}$ share or Rs. 27-0-7. The shares of Nos. 1 and 2 being below Rs. 20 per annum, were commuted in Board's Proceedings, No. 1776, dated 28th June 1875, and G.O., No. 1099, Revenue, dated 22nd July 1876, so that the other $\frac{1}{2}$ share of Rs. 27-0-7 is in the enjoyment of the present holder for life, commutation not having been sanctioned in his case. In the above orders, the allowance being over Rs. 20. This case, it would appear, was omitted to be included in the sum of Rs. 637, sanctioned in G.O., No. 2765, Revenue, dated 13th October 1866, and hence a separate sanction was obtained in G.O., No. 344, dated 20th March 1873.
