5.	Varagaveri village, Tiruchirapalli Taluk. Rs 21 per annum or Rs 1-12-[illegible] per mensem. Location.	Granted by Nawab Muhammad Ali Khan in Fasli 1157 to Sayyid Ibrahim Dubash for [illegible]	Religious service - for the service of mosque - hereditary in the Dudekula mosque at Trichinopoly.	Muhammad Karimuddin - died on 2nd June 1892.	Karimuddin (1) Mother Banu bi (2) Sister Mohindu bi (3) Half-sister Sultan bi (4) Half-brother Sayyid Abdul Kadus (5) Son Muhammad Ibrahim (6) Two minor daughters Aziza bi and Ummatunnisa bi, another half-brother Burhanuddin - a son and daughter of Burhanuddin by a Muhammadan wife.	Karimuddin, the last holder of the yeomiah allowance died on 2nd June 1898 leaving (1) Banu bi, mother of the deceased (2) Abdul Kadus, son of the deceased's half-sister Sultan bi (3) Aziza bi and Ummatunnisa bi, widows of Sayyid Ibrahim, a half-brother of the deceased, and (4) Burhanuddin, a half-brother of the deceased, and (5) Karimuddin the other service yeomiah dar attached to the mosque have put forward their claims. Of these several claimants, no. 4 is not an heir of the deceased yeomiah-dar, and a similar claim made by him was rejected by Government in G.O. No 12 Rev. 14-12-92.*— No. 1. Banu bi is an heir being a legal sharer entitled to 1/6 of the deceased's heritable but regulations. She does not however claim the yeomiah for herself but prefers that it be continued in the name of her foster son, who is not an heir to the deceased. No. 2. Abdul Kadus belongs to the class of distant kindred under the Muhammadan law; but distant kindred have no claim to inherit while there are residuaries. His half-brothers (1) Kamaruddin, Aziza bi and (2) Ummatunnisa bi are all residuaries — equally entitled to inherit. Mohiuddin is not mentioned or put in a joint petition for inheritance. Ummatunnisa bi, though presented a joint petition with Aziza bi did not appear before the Tahsildar for enquiry. She has however requested in the petition that either aged 2 years. Aziza bi or she should be registered as yeomiah-dar and be allowed to draw the allowance. Under these circumstances, I recommend that the allowance be registered in the name of Kamaruddin with a guardian to be appointed by his mother and guardian.	Rs 21 per annum.

vide Cols 5 & 8 of the Tabular statement.

Please see Notes under GO. 1265 dy 14th Dec 1892. Karimuddin in whose name the allowance was, in that Order, directed to be registered, died on 2nd June 1898. The undermentioned persons have put forward their claims to the lapsed yeomiah.

(1) Bannu Bi, the mother of the deceased.

(2) Abdul Kudus, son of the deceased's half-sister, Sultan Bi.

(3) Aziza Bi,
(4) Umrathunnisa Bi, } widows of the deceased's half-brother Burhiuddin on behalf of their sons, and (5) Sayyid Muhiyyuddin, the other service yeomiahdar attached to the mosque, whose claim claim was considered and rejected in 1892.

~~The caller~~ Of these claimants, No 5 is not an heir of the deceased, and may be rejected for the reason given in GO 1255 of 14 Dec 92.

No 1, the mother of the deceased is an heir, ~~of the deceased~~ being a legal sharer entitled to 1/6 of the deceased's heritable property. (Vide, Macnaghten's Principles of Mahomedan Law. case LV. p. 125. (Second Edn). But as she does not claim the Zamiah for herself, but for her foster son who is not an heir of the deceased, her claim cannot be considered.

~~Secondly~~ Abdul Kadus, No 2 belongs to the class of distant Kindred under Mahn. Law; but distant Kindred have no claim to inherit while there are residuaries.

~~Thirdly~~ nos 3 & 4, widows of the deceased's half brother claim the Zamiah on behalf of their sons. but the record second widow does not insist on the rights of her son, a child 9 months old. In her petition she requested that either her son or the son of the first widow, Azizabi might be registered Zamindar, and did not appear before the Tahsildar when he held the enquiry. These sons and a son of the deceased's elder half brother Mouinuddin are residuaries of the deceased, equally entitled to inherit. But the latter ~~though he has a prior right~~ has not claimed the allowance, and his name is not known, he being in the Nilgiris &c. Under these circumstances, the collector recommends that the allowance may be registered in the name of Amiruddin the son of the deceased's half brother, by his first wife and the service permitted to be done by a Sumastah to be appointed by his mother and guardian. This latter course course — doing service by a gumasta appointed by the mother of the minor — is in accordance with the ~~practice~~ direction in GO 1255 dy 14.12.92. Submitted therefore, that the Collr's recommendation may be approved.
