To
The ~~Chief Secy~~ ^{Under Secretary} to post, Public Dept.

The undersigned has the honour to forward the accompanying list of surplus books in this library and to request that he may be informed which of the books mentioned therein are not re^{for the Pub. Liby} quired, because copies are already in that library and which of them have been rejected because it is considered unnecessary ^{for the reason} to keep them in the library. If copies of any of the books rejected as useless are now required, a note may be made to that effect.

Before going into the matter of what is to be done with these books. I should like to know whether there are "lost-wonders" by the Public Library because copies are already in that library or because it is not thought necessary to keep copies in that library.

With reference to the remarks; most of the books are already in the Pub library: no doubt some of the books have been rejected by that Dept. as useless, and it is to make sure that there are not needed that it is proposed to send the lists again to the Pub. Dept. catalogue of books in the Pub library is not yet ready.

This is confidential. The list is to be sent to the Council for their decision. It is not to be sent to the Public Library. It is not to be sent to the Public Library. It is not to be sent to the Public Library.

Note.

The Librarian submits four of the surplus books of this office which are not required by the Chief Secretariat for the combined library. He proposes that list No I which contains many useful books may be printed & circulated to all heads of offices under this & other Dept. of the Secretariat with a view to ascertain whether any books included therein are required by them to fill up gaps in their libraries and that list No IV which consists of selections from old records may also be printed & circulated not only to heads of offices in this Bureau but also to other local government and Administrations. The books of list No II are proposed to be sold at public auction at once & those in list No III are proposed to be destroyed. It is submitted that lists No II & III which contain in all about 100 books may also be printed along with list No I and circulated to all heads of offices and that on receipt of replies it may be decided.

all what books should be tained in the officers' rooms what could be sold by auction & what should be destroyed. A personal inspection of the books may be desirable to decide on these points.

For Orders:-

The Revenue Department Library has now been amalgamated with that of the Public &c. Departments. As will be seen from the Catalogue, it was a very large one and contained very many useful books.
Lists were prepared of them subjectwar, and were forwarded to the Public Dept. - that it may choose such of the books as it may require to make its library complete. The books it wanted have now been forwarded, but the lists now prepared of the remaining books may as well again be sent to that Dept. in order that it may make sure that none of them are needed.

2. Annexed are the four lists - prepared, of over twelve hundred books. - The first is of books useful for purposes of reference. These are classed under the following heads:-

- I Economic Products & Industries
- II Dictionaries & Encyclopædias
- III Gazetteers, Geographical works &c.
- IV Scientific works
- V Ethnology and Religion
- VI Meteorology

VII Societies, Institutions & Funds

VIII Census

IX Famine

X Minutes

XI Statistics

XII Rules, Codes &c.

XIII Histories, Biographies &c.

XIV Settlement Reports

XV Commission Reports

XVI Reports &c. Agricultural

XVII Supplemental List of

Miscellaneous Books

It will be seen from the above list that even this remnant of the library gives information almost of every kind and that almost every office may want some of the books. It is therefore proposed to circulate ^{list} this to all offices and allow them to choose such of the books they may want for filling up gaps in their libraries.

The second list is of books that may as well be sold at auction at once. They are of general interest and will find a market.

The third is of books of transient interest that have outlived their age and gladly welcome ~~their~~ dissolution.

The fourth and the last is of selections from the Old Records, not only of this this Government, but also of other Governments, viz: Bombay, Bengal, North West Provinces, Punjab, Oudh and India. Certainly no trouble would have been taken to print or to reprint, as the case may be, records other than very important ones. A glance at the list will show that there are many books of permanent interest, which will ever be useful. It is proposed to send this list to other ^{Govern-}Departments also.

3. A few points are raised for decision on the margin of list No. I. It will perhaps be necessary to print lists Nos. I and IV before they are circulated.

4. In order to obtain books from the Public Dept. Library, for purposes of reference, it is now necessary to send a requisition signed by the Head Clerk and it sometimes takes hours to obtain them. In view to obviate this difficulty, it is perhaps advisable to expand a bit the miniature libraries in the officers' rooms so as to avoid the necessity ~~for~~ sending frequent requisitions to the other Department. ^{xx} It will perhaps also facilitate referencing if clerks in this Office are empowered to obtain copies direct from the Public Department library, instead of ^{obtaining} sending.

xx With this object it has been suggested on the margin of list No. I. that some of the books may be kept in the disposing officers' rooms.

obtaining them as now, ~~making requisitions~~ through the Head Clerk. Of course each clerk should be held responsible for the books he obtains.

The present practice is to as a certain office holds the Chief Secretary & does not appear to cause any inconvenience so far as I am aware.

See

All the various Dept.
libraries in the Sect have been amalgamated and there is now only one Sect library managed in the Public Dept. All that was useful in our Rev Sect Library has been taken over to form part of this Sect Library. We
of books on our hands.

These books are shown in the accompanying printed list. It will be seen that copies of most of them are in the Sect Library & that the books left on our hands are mainly superfluous copies.

The books are arranged in 4 lists.

I_n for circulation to the Bd of Res & their Inordinate prices for selection of such books as they may want to complete their libraries

II Books proposed to be sold in auction

III Books selected for the waste paper basket

IV Selections from Old Records - Proposed to be circulated also.

The above classification has been effected by the Librarian. I have not had the time yet to examine the books & so to test the value of the classification.

I've propose to circulate all four lists to all subordinate offices & let them take their choice.
