Collector of Salem no 2793 & 25. 590 (no 3878 of 98).

Under Secretary.

An allowance of Rs 39.6.4 appears to have been granted by the Nabobs of Cuddapah to one Hattus shaw for performing the following services in the Kinkirshaw mungid at Tirupattur, Salem District.

- (1) Keeping the mungid clean;
- (2) Putting lights in the mungid;
- (3) Reading namas; and
- (4) Repairing the mungid.

2. The allowance was registered jointly in the names of (1) Hattus Bi, the daughter in law of the original grantee and (2) Thavakal Sahib her son in law and the grandson (an adopted son of the son) of the original grantee. Number (2) having died, the grant was registered in the names of his son Adam Shaw and No (1) Hattus Bi and was held by them jointly in equal shares.

3. The allowance was being paid by means of being deductions via item 12 in page 59 of C. O. 436.2.

3. In the Tabular report read above, it is reported that Hattus Bi died on the 20th November 1896 leaving two daughters (1) Annian Bi aged 40 and (2) Mustan Bi, aged 35, wife of late Tharakal sahib but since married to another man. It appears that Adam Shaw has a sister Zinn Bi aged 15. The yeomahdars are reported to have no means of subsistence except begging.

4. The Collector states that the two daughters of the deceased request that the yeomiah may be registered in their names jointly with Adam Shaw and that the latter has no objection and consents to do the necessary service himself for both of them as they are his own mother and aunt. The service being kept up, the Collector recommends that the allowance be continued and that it be registered in the name of Annian Bi, Mustan Bi and Adam Shaw (for himself and his sister Zinn Bi).

5. Though the allowance was aid by the deceased and Adam

Shaw

Shaw jointly in equal shares, yet as the yeomiah was granted not for the maintenance of the family but for doing service in the munged, it seems unnecessary to register the allowance in the names of all the members. ~~but~~ It will be sufficient to continue it in the name of Adam Shaw, the only male member of the family who actually does the service. Please see the decision in the notes stated Lith. p. 2. ^{1st June 1898} ~~2nd June 1898~~ no. 323.
