2. Vadakarai Malpidagai is practically an uninhabited village. But it was provided with a separate village Establishment on the recommendation of the late Collector (Mr. Higgins) who considered that the village was a large one and should not be clubbed with the adjoining village of Panpuli which was also large. The present Collector (Mr. E. Scott) is however of opinion that it will be advantageous to club these villages together as the village officers and servants and pattadar-

of Vadakarai Malpidagai all 110 in Panpuli. The Board supports Mr. Scott's proposal which involves a saving of Rs. 132 per annum and submits it for the sanction of Government.
