READ the following:—

Copy of arzi, Rifon Sc No. 1079 dated 17th April 1899 from the Tahsildar of Bellary to the Collector of Bellary—

Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India has sanctioned certain leave concessions to the officers employed on Famine and Plague duty. The notification in which the above is published is dated 15th November 1897. In para 4, it is stated that—"concessions will ordinarily cease to be admissable after the expiry of two years from the date of this Resolution". I beg to be informed whether whether the period of leave, if taken, should be completed within the two years allowed or whether it is sufficient if the leave is commenced within the 2 years allowed. I make this reference because I want to take 4 months furlough which comes under this concession in the month of October 1899.

R. fo 9827 25-11-97

To the Under Secretary

Under para 3, Clause (iv) of the Govt of India Resolution printed in Go. 982 Fincl. the famine Concessions therein allowed should ordinarily cease to be admissible after the expiry of two years from the date of that Resolution, i.e after the 14th November 1899.

The question is now raised whether the period of leave, if availed of, should be completed within the prescribed period of 2 years, or whether it is sufficient if the leave commences within that period. The intention of the G. of I is probably that it is sufficient if the leave commences within the prescribed period, irrespective peclure of the date on which it may expire; for in para 2 of its letter No. 770 in Calculating 16-4-99 two years from the date of its resolution No. 2852 P in Connection 29-6-98 with plague concessions it says that the Special leave may be taken at any time before the 29th June 1900

It is submitted that the Board may be informed accordingly
