GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following papers:—

G.O., No. 1964, Judicial, dated 15th October 1892.

ABSTRACT.—Recording Revenue Department proceedings modifying the scheme relating to the establishment of Stationary Sub-Magistrates.

G.O., No. 430, Judicial, dated 12th March 1898.

ABSTRACT.—Approving, with remarks, the proposals of the Board of Revenue (Land Revenue) for the revision of the Sub-Magistrates' establishments in the Agencies of Ganjam, Vizagapatam and Gódvári, and transferring the proposition statement to the Financial Department.

READ—also the following papers:—

G.O., R. No. 528, Financial, dated 4th May 1898.

ABSTRACT.—Sanctioning proposition statement for the revision of the Sub-Magistrates' establishments in the Agencies of Ganjam, Vizagapatam and Gódvári.

From the Board of Revenue (Land Revenue), Reference No. 856, dated 2nd August 1898.

Read—the following letter from V. A. BRODIE, Esq., Collector, Gódvári district, to the Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue, dated Cocanada, 5th July 1898, Ref. on C. No. 412-Agency:—

In submitting proposals for the revision of the Sub-Magistrate's establishments in the Agencies, the Board of Revenue has split up the present pay (Rs. 125) of the Deputy Tahsildar of Yellavaram in the Gódvári Agency into Rs. 120 (pay) and Rs. 5 (local allowance). The Board's proposal has been approved by the Government of Madras—vide G.O., No. 430, Judicial, dated 12th March 1898.

2. The pay of the other Agency Deputy Tahsildars in this district has been similarly fixed at Rs. 120, but the local allowance at Rs. 30 per mensem. The Yellavaram division is as unhealthy as any of the other Agency divisions, if not worse, and there is therefore no reason why the Deputy Tahsildar of that place should receive less as local allowance than his brother Deputy Tahsildars in the Agency. His substantive pay too cannot be reduced in order that the amount of local allowance may be raised, inasmuch as Deputy Tahsildars in charge of independent divisions are generally in receipt of Rs. 120 per mensem. Further, the local allowance payable to the head gumastah of the Yellavaram division office is Rs. 10, i.e., Rs. 5 more than what is allowed to the Deputy Tahsildar which is anomalous. In these circumstances, I have the honour to request that the Government may be moved to increase the local allowance of the Yellavaram Deputy Tahsildar by Rs. 20.

3. The additional charge proposed can be met by reducing to Rs. 100 the pay of the Prattipadu Deputy Tahsildar. Prattipadu is a dependent division and it is not more unhealthy than the Chintalapudi division in the Ellore taluk. The pay of this Deputy Tahsildar was originally fixed at Rs. 100, but the saving of Rs. 140 per mensem, which was the result of certain modifications in the salaries of Sub-Magistrates of zamindari divisions, has been utilized, as ordered by Government, in raising to

Rs. 120 the pay of seven Sub-Magistrates, of whom Prattipadu is one—vide paragraph 2 of G.O., No. 969, Revenue, dated 13th September 1892. By giving effect to this proposal, there will be no additional expense to the State.

4. If the above proposal is approved and sanctioned by Government, effect will be given to the same on the present permanent Deputy Tahsildar of Prattipadu being provided with a pucca post on Rs. 120 or more elsewhere and on the retirement of the present Deputy Tahsildar of Yellavaram.

Reference—No. 856, dated 2nd August 1898.

In its orders noted in the margin, Government sanctioned the Board's recommendation to divide the consolidated allowances of the Agency Sub-Magistrate G.O., No. 430, Judicial, dated 12th March 1898. of Yellavaram into a substantive pay of Rs. 120, and a local allowance of Rs. 5.

2. In the letter read above, the Government Agent, Gódvári, points out that the other Agency Sub-Magistrates' charges in his district to which a local allowance of Rs. 30 is attached are not more unhealthy than Yellavaram and that the Head Gumastah at that station draws a local allowance of Rs. 10 or Rs. 5 more than that drawn by the Sub-Magistrate himself. In order to remove this anomaly he proposes to increase the Sub-Magistrate's local allowance by Rs. 20 and to meet the additional cost by reducing the pay of the Sub-Magistrate of Prattipadu, which was raised from Rs. 100 to Rs. 120 in G.O., No. 969, Revenue, dated 13th September 1892; the reason for that enhancement is not stated in the Government Order and the Collector reports that there is nothing in the conditions of the Prattipadu Sub-Magistracy calling for such special treatment.

3. The Board agrees with the Agent and recommends his proposal for the favourable consideration of Government.

Acting Secretary.
