OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE

(LAND REVENUE),

Madras, ^{Forest} 21st October 1898.

READ— Endorsement of A. A. Gans Esquire, Acting Conservator of Forests, Southern Circle, dated 12th October 1898, at 12th 1/2, forwarding to the Board letter from J. A. Cunningham Esquire, Ag. Collector of Coimbatore, dated 29 September 1898, Cir. No. 173, requesting to obtain sanction of the Local Government for the ^{journey} made by the D. F. O. North Coimbatore Division with his camp clerk & two ponies to Bangalore & back for the verification of the Survey of India maps.

Reference No. 401 For. dated 21st October 1898.

In the letter read above, the Collector of Coimbatore requests that the sanction of Government may be obtained for the journey of the District Forest Officer North Coimbatore Division with his camp clerk and two ponies to Bangalore and back and for their halt at that station from 6th to 11th June last. The journey was undertaken for the purpose of verifying the Survey of India maps, but the Collector, apparently through oversight, omitted to apply for the sanction of Government therefor under Article 1137 Civil Service Regulations. The Accountant-General having now pointed out the omission, the Collector requests that the necessary sanction may be obtained. The Board accordingly submits the Collector's request for the favourable consideration of Government.
