With reference to their tender, dated 22nd instant, for the supply of spirits to the excise tracts of South Canara for the year 1st October 1898 to 30th September 1899, Messrs. Parry & Co. are informed that they have failed to state under paragraph II of the notification the name of the distillery from which supply will be made.
This should now be done.

2. It is also brought to their notice that it is necessary that the supply for the monsoon months imported by sea should be laid down before the south-west monsoon breaks—May or June. Condition 3 under paragraph IX of the notification provides for sufficient supply being maintained, but this, in the circumstances stated, requires satisfactory pre-arrangement. Messrs. Parry & Co. are requested to state whether they understand this and will guarantee that there will be no failure of supply.

Acting Secretary.

To Messrs. Parry & Co., Madras.
