The Dewan of
 Cochin State
 Ernakulum
 Sir, I have the honor to enclose in accordance with your instructions to obtain whatever further instruments may be wanting for the Cochin Survey from some of the firms in Madras, an Indent on the Superintendent of the Madras Survey for stores and paper &c. urgently needed, and will be very thankful if you will give this your earliest attention and secure the sanction of the Madras Government to the supply being made.

As you are aware the Survey department of the State has still to be organised, and excepting a small supply already in use, all instruments &c. must be purchased before operations can commence.

If I am to obtain what I so urgently need from different firms great delay must occur and necessarily, any thing like progress in work cannot be

I have to send you a copy of the letter from the Superintendent of the Madras Survey, dated 1st March 1880, and a copy of the letter from the Government, dated 1st March 1880, both of which are enclosed herewith. (Sd) P. Rajagopalachari, Dewan of Cochin. (True copy)
