SIR,

I have the honor to state that the Durbar will be obliged if they can be furnished with information regarding the rules in force on the subject of "Agraharam Inams" in the Madras Presidency. What they specially desire to know is whether these Inams were enfranchised at the Inam settlement without any restriction on their alienability to non-brahmins.

2. They would also like to be supplied, if available, with a copy each of Volumes I and II of the "Manual of Administration of the Madras Presidency" by Doctor Macleane, which they understand are now out of print.

I have the honor to be

Sir,

Your most obedient servant

Dr. T. S. Srinivasan

Cur No. 7216

From The Resident, in Mysore

Dated 15th October 1898.

FOR ORDERS.

The Mysore Durbar request through the Resident in Mysore, to be furnished with information regarding the rules in force on the subject of "Aparaham Enams" in this Presy., and to be supplied, if possible, with a copy each of Vols I + II of the "Manual of Administration of the Madras Presy" by Dr Macleane. They specially desire to know whether these Enams were enfranchised at the Enam Settlement without any restriction on their alienability to Non-Brahmins.

In Appendix B to the Report of the Enam Comm. "Aparaham Enam" is described to be "a village or a part of one, occupied by Brahmins and held

put up

told either rent free or at a favourable rate of assessment."

Under Board's standing Order (Appendix to Order No 116 - XXIV) such villages were to be dealt with upon the same principle as were above prescribed in minor inams. Consequently no restriction seems to have been imposed on their alienability to non-Brahmins, inams enfranchised at the same settlement being on the same footing as ordinary ryotwary land in the matter of succession, transfer, subdivision etc. (Vide para of S.O. 117).

Beyond this, no information could be obtained from the Records here. Submitted that the Nam Commission may be requested to furnish the information required.

As regards Dr Macleane's Manual, it has been ascertained from the Supdt. Govt. Press that no copies of Vols I & II are in stock. Submitted

Please see the enclosed for that the Resident may be informed accordingly. No copies are available in the Chief Secretariat Library.
