the ajchar rule.

3. As regards No 1. A. G. Jesudasan Pillai it will be seen from G.Os nos 6336 G 5.12.97 and 27 G 5-1-98 that he was exempted from the ajchar rule and from the Forestry Test. He appeared for the entrance examination A and passed it - please see the letter from the Director of the Imperial Forest school Dehra Dun in G.O. no. 621 G 1.3.98. He seems to have been kept back from attending the school this year. It is not known why he was kept back. The Board now requests that the sanction accorded in the G.Os quoted above may now be renewed. C For orders as to whether Jesudasan Pillai may be exempted from the ajchar and the papers transferred to the Educational dept. for exemption from the Forestry Test. He will be 30 years and 11 months old on the 1st July 1899

but the Board of Revenue state that as he is the only candidate whom it is proposed to depute from the Southern Circle its support to the Conservator's recommendation.

The exemption from ajchar may be granted? Too late

There appear no necessity to formally exempt Jesudasan Pillai again from passing the Forestry Test. Exemption from ajchar with however be necessary as he is now a year older.

The Govt has the power to exempt from ajchar in order to permit of the applicant entering the Forest School (Vide para 3 Govt of India's letter No 3007 G 26. Feb 98 in G.O. misc 1738 Revd 1 April 98)
