GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read again G.O.No.424,Political,dated 27th June 1898.

READ the following paper:—

Proceedings of the Board of Revenue,(Separate Revenue) Mis.No.3148, dated 11th August 1898, submitting a memo showing the points of difference between the Madras Abkari Act and Travancore Regulation IV of 1073.

O R D E R:-No.780,dated 8th November 1898.

It is observed that Section 60 of the Travancore Abkari Regulation does not contain the first clause of the corresponding Section (64) of Madras Act I of 1886 and thus omits the presumption contained in the Madras Act that a person has committed an offence when he cannot satisfactorily account for the possession of liquor, intoxicating drugs &c. The absence of this Statutory presumption, which is to be found in almost every revenue enactment, will render it almost impossible to enforce the Act criminally and any failure of the Travancore law to deal with Abkari revenue crime will react on British territory and facilitate smuggling. The clause

...g of a fiscal regulation. The Resident will advise the Darbar to supply the omission and will report the result in due course.
