From The Financial Dep^t
No 2703 Dated 3rd December 1898.

FOR ORDERS.To Under Secy.

The Financial Dep^t transfers a letter from the Sup^t of Stationery submitting a list and diagrams of rubber stamps which are considered necessary by the Sup^t Madras Survey for use in his dep^t and requesting the sanction of Govt for the use of the list and diagrams.

2. It is not understood why the sanction of Govt is sought for. The stamps now in use does not appear to have been sanctioned by Govt.

3. In reviewing the report of the Stationery dep^t for 1894-95 the Govt pointed out that the indents for rubber stamps from the several Collectors was very high and requested the Board to consider how best they could be kept within proper limits. A similar request was made on the High Court as to the institution of some check in St. Luke's and Mississippi Courts.

4. The Board's Prop on the subject was merely 'recorded' in this dep^t and communicated to the Financial dep^t. In passing orders thereon it was stated in G.O. No 673 of 25.8.97 that an enquiry similar to that instituted by the Board (should be made by the other dep^{ts} of the Board and by certain dep^{ts} of the Secretariat; (The Revenue dep^t was not one of these.) and that the result of the enquiries should be communicated to the Financial dep^t in view to the decision as regards rubber stamps being embodied in the Stationery

Stationery rules. Presumably it is with reference to these orders that the dep^t of Stationery now forwards the list and diagrams for the sanction of Govt and for their incorporation in the Stationery rules. It is therefore not understood why the papers are transferred to the Revenue dep^t as the question is one for consideration in Financial.

5. The Diagrams Nos 1-10 are the office date stamps and correspond to No 1 in the Bonds list in B.P. No 198 of 12.6.1897. The necessity for 6A and 8A is however not known.

No 11 (Register No. . . .) calls for no remarks.

The necessity for No 12 is not apparent and it may perhaps be struck out.

No 13 (Survey Office Madras, date of issue -) it is thought it would be sufficient
