Madras, dated 8th November 1898.

Letter from Read endorsement of E.A. Elvin Esq., Ag. Collector - of Bellary, R.C. No. 1595 P., dated 6th November 1898

Read also Proposition statement received from the same officer, Ref. on C No. 1595-P, dated 6th November 1898.

Reference No. 1261 dated 8th November 1898.

In its Proceedings No. 1295 Plague, Local & Municipal, dated 11th October 1898, Government directed that applications for appointments of Deputy Tahsildars intended to relieve Tahsildars employed on Plague duty of their ordinary Revenue and Magisterial work should be submitted to it for sanction with the necessary proposition statement. In the letter read above, the Collector of Bellary reports that the duties of the Tahsildar of Alur in connection with the Plague which has recently occurred there, are of a most onerous nature and that unless some special assistance is given, the ordinary work of the Tahsildar will fall into objection hopeless arrears as there is no Stationary Sub-Magistrate at Alur. He accordingly recommends the entertainment of a special Deputy Tahsildar and Sub-Magistrate on Rs. 100 to relieve the Tahsildar of some of his ordinary work during his employment on Plague duty. The Board supports the Collector's recommendation. It is requested that the orders of Government on these Proceedings may be communicated to the Collector direct by wire.

to Alwar and that the Collector accordingly recommends the appointment of a special Deputy Tahsildar and Sub. Magistrate to Alwar to relieve the Tahsildar of some of his ordinary work during his employment on plague duty. The Board supports the Collector's recommendation and requests that the orders of Government may be communicated to the Collector direct by wire.

2. The cost during the ~~present~~ current year will be about Rs 350 but no source is pointed out from which the expenditure could be met. The Collector has forwarded a statement for additional allotment but no remarks have been made either by the Board or the Accountant-General. Before consulting the Financial Department, the Board of Revenue may be asked by telephone to state whether the additional expenditure could be met from savings from the budget grant of the current year.

Yes. Do so
