PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE
(REVENUE SETTLEMENT, LAND RECORDS AND AGRICULTURE).

From the Board of Rev (Rev. Sett)
No 454 Dated 12 - 12 - 1898.

FOR ORDERS.

To the Under Secretary

READ—the following letter from B. MACLEOD, Esq., M.A., Barrister-at-Law, Collector of Anantapur, to the Secretary to the Commissioner of Revenue Settlement, Land Records and Agriculture, dated 2nd December 1898, Ref. on C. No. 2237-Gl. :—

Wudda Thimmugadu of Singanamala village, Anantapur taluk, was granted a loan of Rs. 20 under the Ordinary Rules for excavating a well in his land, wet No. 36, extent 2 acres, 6 kuntas, 2 visams, assessment Rs. 6-10-0.

2. The party states that he has spent Rs. 10 from his pocket in addition to the loan received, but the Revenue Inspector estimates the value of work done at Rs. 20, which is equal to the amount of the loan advanced.

3. Stone work for bucket has been carried out to one side of the well and the borrower promises to finish the remaining portion later on, according to his convenience.

4. The work executed is reported likely to last four years.

5. In the revised rules there is provision for recovery of the loan in such cases within the period for which the improvement is likely to last. This being, however, a loan sanctioned under the old rules, the Divisional-officer recommends summary recovery; but this, under the circumstances of the case, seems hard.

6. I have therefore the honour to request instructions if the revised rules cannot be made applicable to such deserving cases.

RESOLUTION—No. 454, dated 12th December 1898.

The Collector will be informed that the provision in the revised rules referred to in paragraph 5 of his letter read above may be followed in cases of the kind under report.

Rule 27 of the old ordinary rules under
the Land Improvement Loans Act lays down that, if any of the conditions on which a loan was granted
has not been performed,
the whole amount due by the borrower may be forthwith recovered.

Rule XXVI of the revised rules, however, lays
down that in such cases,
either the whole amount
due may be forthwith
recovered or the instalments may be altered so
as to ensure repayment
of the loan within the period for which the improvement

improvement is likely to last.

2. A loan of Rs 20 was granted in the Ananta for St under the old ordinary rules for excavating a well. Work to the estimated value of this amount has been done, but the well is still incomplete as ~~the~~ "stone ^{for bucket} masonry work" has been carried out to "one side of the well" only ~~the major portion thereof~~. The borrower promises to finish the remaining work later on, according to his convenience. In these circumstances the unpaid ^(which is here the full amount of Rs 20) balance should, under the old rules, be recovered forthwith. But the Collector ~~apparently~~ thinks that this would be hard on the borrower, and ~~he~~ therefore raises the question whether in such deserving cases the provision made in the revised rules, of recovering the balance balance within the period during which the improvement is likely to last (4 years in the present case), may be applied. The Board thereupon issues instruction to Collectors that in such deserving cases the provision in the revised rules may be followed.

Rule 27 of the old rules.

The Board's instructions appear to be unobjectionable, as under Rule XXVI of the revised rules, a fresh loan order will be issued. A draft order recording the B's Profs is put up on the docket of the current for approval.
