for government sanction for the Pillai with effect from the date of his appointment as Receiver by the Sub-judge. The Board ^{of Rev} to which the papers were referred, ~~forwards~~ had no objection to the proposed transfer, but the Accountant General in forwarding the Proceedings made the following remarks. — The employment of Haruppasami Pillai as receiver of Vadi Moittah estate cannot be brought under the Foreign service rules as it does not fall under any of the three kinds of Foreign service defined in article 802 of the C. S. R. There is, however, no objection to his deputation; his service as Receiver will then not count for pension, but will not constitute an interruption entailing forfeiture of his past services, the case falling under section (c) of article 463 of the C. S. R. These remarks were communicated ^{in February last} to the D. J. Judge, Diuverelly, for consideration. No communication has been received from the D. J. Judge on the point. In the current read above, the Accountant General requests that a copy of appointment of Haruppasami Pillai as Receiver of the estate may be furnished to him and add that the Collector of Diuverelly has forwarded to him the service register of Haruppasami Pillai for noting therein the change in the appointment while under the service of the Court of wards. In the G.O. quoted by the Accountant General, the transfer was not sanctioned but his remarks were merely communicated for the consideration of the District Judge who has not yet, however, made any report on the subject. It is not known whether Haruppasami Pillai is willing to be retained as Receiver losing the ^{service as} ~~possessions~~ ^{regards pension} ~~possessions~~ for the period during which he is so employed. The District Judge may be asked to report at an early date whether he desires to have the services of Haruppasami Pillai in the circumstances stated by the Accountant General.

G.O. 774 of 15-2-98.

FOR ORDERS.

Please see Note under
O.M. No 232 of 5th Oct 98.
(on C. No 5845). The Dist.
Judge Trinnevelly was requested to state whether he desires to utilise the services of P. Karuppathe circumstances stated by the Acct. Genl. in his Encl.

not answer the question directly, but states that the appointed as Receiver is now pending before the sub-

Judge of Dinnivelly and that the subjudge reports that the Receiver's services will be required until the end of April next. It appears that G.O. 774 d/15-2-98 which merely communicated the Acct Gen's remarks to the Dist Judge for consideration was construed as sanctioning the proposed transfer. In these circumstances it is very likely that Karuppaswami Pillai himself does not know that he loses his service for pension so long as he is employed as Receiver. It is submitted that a formal order transferring his services for employment as Receiver may now issue and the fact that his service as Receiver will not count for pension may also be added in the G.O.
