My dear Sir,

At the suggestion of the Inspector General of Forests, the Board has recently arranged for the collection of notes on the reproduction of sandalwood tree in this Presidency and has entrusted the work of editing these notes to P. M. Lushington, District Forest Officer, North Coimbatore. Lushington will thus have additional work thrown upon him and the Forest Member consequently desires to give him some assistance. I am for this reason to suggest that H. F. Arbutnot, who was until recently acting as District Forest Officer, Salem, but has just been relieved of the acting appointment by Brasier, should be posted to North Coimbatore.

A draft minute of posting is enclosed for His Excellency's approval.

I am to add that the Forest Member has directed Arbutnot to proceed to to

To North Coimbatore in anticipation of his posting being notified in the Gazette.

Yours sincerely
Lieut Davidson
