The humble petition of Mohamed Noorullah Sahib Ghatalah son of Baday Sahib Ghatalah the petitioned darogah Youmiah Orphan School Arcot.

Most respectfully Sheweth;

The petitioner humbly submits that this Youmiah had been issued and thus continued in by the ancient Nababs of Arcot and even by the British Government in the names of his forefathers, from 7th Generation till his father was removed on pension lately.

Baday Sahib was the ~~holder~~ holder of the office of Daroga (Superintendent) ~~and~~ till 1894 when he was removed from the appointment and the allowance was resumed for failure on his part to fulfil the conditions of the grant. He was, however, allowed, as an act of grace, a monthly pension of Rs 10 on the district understanding that the pension would absolutely cease on his death. The management of the school ~~was transferred~~ together with it of the school, ^{alleging business difficulties} ~~being~~ the nearest

But he was informed in G.O.
