the enforcement of the rule, ^{above referred to} has led to

G.O. the levy of heavy overtime fees. In some cases Sub-Inspectors are already employed for night distillation at the cost of the distillers. The existence of the smaller distilleries is moreover now being threatened by the competition of G.O. East India Distilleries and Sugar Factories Company, which supplies two-

C. 2 thirds of the country spirits consumed in the Presidency, and the Govt: is of opinion that it is not desirable that they should be handicapped by the additional charges referred to. On all these grounds this Govt: considers that it is necessary to employ a Sub-Inspector at Govt: expense to help the distillery Assistant Inspector. If the arrangement is allowed for the smaller distilleries, it will be invidious to deny it at the larger establishments. M. L. Inf. believes that the larger revenue realized by the closer supervision wh. the

3. I am to add that no Sub-Inspector has been proposed for the distillery at Aravanghat, the issues at which are on a small scale. On the other hand, two Sub-

Inspectors

Inspectors are required at each of the Ranipettai and Nellikuppam distilleries, the transactions at which are very heavy.

4 In these circumstances, I am to express the hope that the Govt: of India will see its way to the retention of the seventeen distillery Sub-Inspectors and that the very early sanction of the Right Honourable the Secretary of State may be obtained to the scheme submitted in my letter No:433, d/4th August 1893.
