Revenue Dept.

Sir,

By Notification No. 153 Revenue at page 282 of the Fort St George Gazette of the 5th April last, the Government was graciously pleased to promote me to be a Deputy Collector, second grade, for which I beg to tender my grateful acknowledgments.
The pay of the second grade of Deputy Collectors is Rs. 600, which

which is the same amount as I received as Chief Assistant in the Chief Secretariat from the 9th January 1893, so that I have not benefitted pecuniarily by my promotion.

2. In the Quarterly Civil List for the 1st July last my name is placed at the bottom of the second grade.
The officer immediately above me was appointed to the grade on the 1st April 1897.
I would very respectfully ask that the Government may be pleased to concede to me some advantage from my service of over five years on Rs. 600 before my transfer to the Provincial Service, provided that any such concession would not be the cause of a real grievance to the officers who were in the second grade before I was appointed to it.

I have the honour to be

Sir,

Your most obedient servant
Frank D. Bird

Deputy Collector, 2nd grade and Asst Supt of Stamps & Stationery
