OFFICE OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE (LAND REVENUE),

Madras, 11th January 1899

Reference No. 33 (Petition) dated 11th January 1899.

*In G.O. 55
19.1.99*

In its reference NO. 1249 dated 5th November 1898, the Board recommended the entertainment of a temporary establishment for the partition of the portion of the Vallur estate situated in the Kistna District in pursuance of a decree passed by the District Judge under section 265 of the Civil Procedure Code. In the letter read above the Collector of Godavari proposes to entertain a similar establishment for the sub-division of the remaining portions of the estate lying within his district for a period of four months. He states that the Head Assistant Collector has found it impossible to do the work in addition to his own without serious hindrance to the latter and considers it undesirable to get the work in both districts done by the same establishment as it will cause unnecessary delay. Mr. Brodie suggests that M.R. Ry. K. Narasimham Pantulu garu, Tahsildar of Ramachandrapur who possesses considerable local knowledge and ability may be employed as Deputy Collector on this special duty so far as his district is concerned. observes that the Tahsildar being of a conciliatory disposition is likely to effect the sub-division without any friction with either party to the decree. The Tahsildar owns lands in the District, but the Collector considers that this can hardly be held to be a bar to his appointment as a Deputy Collector for the special purpose of the sub-division, for he will have no concern with the administration of the district or any part of it.

2. The cost of the establishment amounting to Rs.2500 has been deposited in the District Court by the decree holder as costs in the suit.

Order No. N-592 of 9-12-99.

In the circumstances reported, the entertainment of the marginally noted establishment for a period of four months for work in connection with the sub-division of the portion of the Vallur Estate situated within the Godavari district, is sanctioned. The amount entered in the Board's Reference as payable on account of contribution (Rs 234) appears to have been taken at one-sixth of the total cost of the establishment, viz. Rs 1404. But in reference to the provisions of Articles 114 and 123 of the C.P.R., the proper contribution chargeable would be one-fifth in the case of the Dy. Colly, one-sixth in the case of clerks, and one anna in the rupee in the case of peons.

On this calculation the ^{sum} ~~amount~~ to be charged as contribution will amount to Rs 259.

2. Mr. K. Narasimham Pantulu Bann, Tahsildar of Ramachandraপুর, will, ~~be appointed by collector for the purpose of the sub-division.~~
