FOR ORDERS.To Under Secy

in p^o 5009 Rw:
 17. 12 98
 A

With its n^o. 2581 of 21st Nov. 1898, the F.O. sent to the R.D. copies of extracts from the notes recorded by the Hon Sir Henry Bliss on the subject of the grant of deputatiché allowance to officers, and more especially Deputy Collectors, employed on plague work. As the connected papers were not forwarded at the same time and when asked for were reported to be not ^{then} available it was thought that the notes were sent merely for information and future guidance and they were accordingly filed with G.O.

misc

misc no 5009 Rev: 17. 12. 98

2. It now appears that the immediate reason for sending to the R.D. the M's notes was a letter received from the Coll^r of Anantapur enquiring whether Mr W.S. Marshall, his "Plague" Deputy lector was to draw any special allowance as (the Coll^r remarks)

"it is understood that he does "an allowance of Rs 100 by "his present transfer from Sha-"drachallam". This letter however was ~~sent~~ not sent to R.D. this (it is now understood) by an oversight, and the L.M. in which it was first received and the F.D.

think that orders should issue in the Dept in which Mr Marshall's appointment was made i.e. the Rev Dept.

3. As the general question has already been raised and settled in the M's notes above referred to it is presumed that it will not be he now reconsidered. Mr Marshall's appointment as Dy Collector, further was specially created for plague work and as he was ousted from Bhadrachallam by Mr Woodhouse for whom he had been acting and on whose reversal his appointment in the regular line of the service ceased it is not also a fact that he has been losing an allowance of Rs 100 per mensem by his transfer from that division.

4. Orders are solicited as to whether in the circumstances the Collector of Anantapur may be informed ^{that Mr Marshall will not accordingly draw any} special allowance.

Yes: the Rs 100 is in consideration of the special disadvantages of Bhadrachallam.

A draft G.O. is submitted for approval a General order in the line of the H.M.'s notes in G.O. 5009 of 17.12.98 if issued might affect Mr Lever's case, the order re. which the H.M. did not want to be disturbed. The only other office, ^{of the Dept} that would be affected by such an order is Mr C. Gahan. There is however no information in the office as to whether he is drawing any special allowance.
