My dear Sir,

I wrote to you on the 3rd suggesting that Assistant Commissioner Mr. Mainwaring who was due from leave on the 13th should be posted to Cocanada vice Mr. H. C. Sherman, the junior acting man, and this was approved. Yesterday I had news that M. R. R. A. Krishnasami Ayyangar, the Masulipatam Assistant Commissioner, had come to Madras suffering from an affection of the throat and today he applies for two months and twenty-one days privilege leave with a view to his recovery. In these circumstances I think it will be best to let Mr. Sherman stay where he is and send Mr. Mainwaring to Masulipatam.

I
