special assistance is given to him the ordinary work of the taluk office (including the collection and jamabandi work) which is -- already very backward will inevitably fall into arrears. Mr. Campbell states that the Station Sub-Magistrate at Hospet has heavy criminal work to do and that he cannot be expected to afford relief to the Tahsildar who is compelled to remain almost constantly in Hos-pet, plague being on the increase in the town and requiring prompt and personal attention. The Special Deputy Tahsildar will have frequently to go into camp to push on the collection and jamabandi -- work and it is proposed to allow him two peons on Rs. 6 each as he there will be numerous calls on the Taluk menial establishment -- during the continuance of the plague. An additional clerk on Rs. 20
