Office of the Board of (Land Revenue),

Madras, 13th February 1899

Read - again Board's Proceedings no 1829, dated 12th July 1898, passing orders on the proposal of the collector of Kistna to revise the village mam Registers, the vernacular quit-rent registers maintained in Taluk and the mam and quit-rent registers of the Muzur office.

Read also letter from R. Marcus Esq, Collector of Kistna, Refon c no. P.C. 94 of '99 dated the 23rd January 1899.

Reference B No. 20 dated 13th February 99.

In his letter dated the 17th December 1897, the Collector of Kistna brought to the Board's notice the unsatisfactory state in which the village B (mam) registers, the quit-rent registers of the Taluk office and the mam and quit-rent registers of the Muzur office of the District were

and it was stated that here was no entry in the village B registers the numbers of the title deeds to which the fields related, that the Taluk and Muzur Registers did not contain the survey numbers corresponding to the old simash numbers and that permanent changes made subsequent to the main settlement, had not been noted at all.

Mr. Morris stated that an exhaustive enquiry seemed absolutely necessary, and that the work could not be done except during the jamabandi season and accordingly requested sanction for the entertainment, for a period of four months, of five clerks on Rs 20 each, one for the Collector's office and the remaining four for the Divisional office.
2. In its reference no. 175 dated 8th February '98, the Board, while noting the state of things disclosed by the Collector was very discreditable, pointed out that the entry of changes subsequent to the main settlement was most intricate and required careful and responsible supervision, and accordingly requested him to report in greater detail how he proposed to carry out the necessary reforms. The collector stated in reply, in his letter dated the 21st March 1898, that as the jamabandi of that taluk had then progressed towards completion it would not be practicable to give effect to his original proposals, and that proper course was to appoint a Special Deputy Collector with the usual establishment for six months. Mr. Morris was of opinion that the work of the Taluk quit-rent registers could be done by the ordinary Taluk staff also appeared from his letter that the establishment ment

here was no
in village B registers would be facilitated to a great extent by the statements which were prepared in 1875 in order to find out the excess chargeable on inams, and that, as regards the entry of the changes that have occurred subsequent to the main Settlement, the village officers and the inamdars would be able to furnish information in the majority of cases. The Board therefore concluded that the appointment of a Special Deputy Collector was unnecessary, but observed that, as pointed out by the Collector, the proposed reforms could be most conveniently undertaken at the time of the Jamabandi and that, if any special one ^{year} ^{term} ^{of} ^{the} ^{year} was required, it should be maintained at that season of the year.

2. Jamabandi for fasli 1307 had ^{not} yet come to a close, at the time of the Board's order, the Collector was ^{not} ^{able} ^{to} ^{take} ^{the} ^{same} ^{for} ^{another} ^{year}, to take to remedy the defects with the help of the ordinary staff; and to submit, at the end of December 1898, a report as to the progress made in the work and the special establishments, if any, required during the Jamabandi of the current fasli.

3. With his letter last read above, Mr. Morris submits a statement showing the progress made. It would appear that out of 1840 villages the main registers relating to 840 have been checked by the Tahsildars concerned and the Collector expects that the work will be finished in most of the Taluqs before the end of the current fasli. As these registers which have been prepared by the village officers have to be scrutinized by the Divisional officers and checked again in the Muzar officer with the main and quit-rent registers maintained there, Mr. Morris proposes to strengthen the establishment ment in the offices of the collector and Divisional officers, by entertaining for one month from the 1st. March next, five clerks on Rs 20 each. The Board supports the collector's proposal and submits it for the sanction of Government. The charge can be met from the sum of Rs 400. provided in the budget for 1899-1900 (vide item 9 in appendix E at page 44 of Board's Proceedings no. 262 dated 30th September 1898).
