Reference No. 99 dated 27th January 1899.

The papers read above relating to the transfer of P. Viraraghavulu Nayudu, Revenue Inspector, Buddapah Taluk, as Head accountant, Local Fund Engineer's office on probation for 3 months from 7th November 1898, are resubmitted to Government with reference to its order No. 214 Rev. dated 12th January 1899.

The President, District Board states that—there were no competent persons in the Local Fund service to take up the appointment in question and that that the work would have seriously suffered in the absence of an accountant even for a short period. The temporary appointment of P. Viraraghavulu Nayudu ^{thus} appears to have been made in the public interests, not merely in the interests of the individual and the Board accordingly recommends that the proposed transfer may be sanctioned as a ^{special} case under para 2 of Government Order No. 2650, dated 12th November 1892. Local and Municipal.

2 The Board observes that the power of sanctioning temporary transfers delegated to it in para 2 of Government Order No. 660 Revenue, dated 23rd November 1896 relates to appointments in Foreign Service under Article 815 of the Civil Service Regulations and not to pensionable appointments under Local

SIR,

I have the honor to state that, the services of the Head Accountant of the Local Fund Engineer's Office, Cuddapah, having been dispensed with, I have appointed one P. Venaraghavalu Naikoo 2nd grade Revenue Inspector Cuddapah Taluk to act as Sub pro tem Local Fund Head Accountant of the above office with effect from the 7th inst ant on probation for 3 months. The temporary appointment of this person became necessary, as I could not find any competent person in the Local Fund Service to be posted to this appointment; and as work would Submitted with the remark that there is no account objection to the transfer as stated in this office letter No. 243C dated 16 December 1898.

The Board of Revenue appears to be correct in holding that the power delegated in Government Order No. 660 Revenue dated 23 November 1896 does not relate to the temporary transfer of Government officers to pensionable appointments under Local Funds.

As regards the concluding part of the Board's reference attention is solicited to para 2 of Government order No. 2650 dated 12th April 1892 Local and Municipal.

From The Board of Revenue (Land Revenue)

Dated 27th January 1899.(received 14th February 99).
FOR ORDERS.

Accountant-General's endorsement 2nd 16-12-98
(G.O. 214 of 12-1-99) D

A In his letter of 3rd November 1898, the President District Board Cuddapah requested sanction of Government to the loan of the services of P. Viraraghavulu Nayudu, 2nd class Revenue Inspector, Cuddapah Taluk, for employment as Local Fund Head Accountant for a period of three months from the 7th November 1898. The Accountant-General reported that there was no account objection to the transfer proposed but added that the transfer might be sanctioned by the Board of Revenue under the powers vested in it by G.O. no. 660 of 23rd November 1896. The papers were accordingly forwarded to the Board of Revenue for necessary action (vide G.O. 214 of 12-1-99) that the order does not apply to the present case.

E The Board states that as there were no competent persons in the Local Fund Service to take up the appointment in question and as the work would have seriously suffered in the absence of an accountant even for a short period, the temporary appointment of Veeraraghavulu Nayudu appears to have been made in the public interests.

It accordingly recommends that the proposed transfer may be sanctioned as a special case.

The Board's recommendation may be sanctioned.

3. The Board observes that the power of sanctioning temporary transfers delegated to it in G.O. 660 of 23.11.96 applies to appointments in Foreign Service under article 815 of the Civil Service Regulations and not to pensionable appointments under Local Funds as stated by the Accountant-General and that it is a question for consideration whether a similar delegation should now be made in regard to the latter class of transfers. The Accountant-General, in forwarding the reference, remarks: "The Board of Revenue appears to be correct

E "in holding that the power delegated in Government order no. 660 Rev of 23rd November 1896 does not relate to the temporary transfer of Government officers to pensionable appointments under Local Funds.

G "As regards the concluding part of the Board's Reference, attention is solicited to para 2 of G.O. 2650 Local & unum. of 12th November 1892. In this order, it was observed that the prohibition of the transfer of Government servants to Local Fund employ, without the special sanction of Government, had no connection with the Civil Service Regulations but was enjoined on independent grounds, namely the expediency of making Local Fund Service and establishment sufficient in themselves and of securing to Local Fund servants due promotion in their own department and that the prohibition should be maintained.

Orders are solicited as to whether the Board should be empowered, in cases of the kind in question, to sanction transfers in respect of affairs subordinate to it for temporary duty not lasting for more than six months.
