REMARKS.—The price of the staple food-grains fell considerably throughout the Presidency, but still continued higher than the average of ten normal years ending 1895–96 except in Kistna and Kurnool where rice and some of the dry food-grains were also cheaper than the average. The price of salt was almost stationary.

RESOLUTION—No. 62, dated 24th February 1899.

The statements read above, showing the rainfall, cultivation and prices of food-grains and of salt in the several districts of the Presidency during January 1899, will be published.
