SUBJECT.

Raising certain objections to to the Bill to amend the Malabar Compensation for Tenants' Improvements Act, I of 1887, soliciting that it may not be passed into Law as speedily as is proposed, and that the interests of the Jaminis and the views they have to advance may be carefully considered.

Read petition^{dy 27-2-99} from the Zamorin of Calicut offering certain observations on the Bill to amend the Malabar Compensation for Tenants Improvement Act I of 1887 (M) (Cus 1596).

To the Under Secretary

The clauses of the Bill criticized by the Zamorin are:-

H (1) Explanation; 4(2) a, b, c; 6(2); 8; 9; 15; 16; and the Schedules. But there appears to be nothing new in the criticisms.

It is submitted the petition may be transferred to the Legislative Dept. Please see draft on the current.
