PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE.

Read—again the following Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, dated 19th August 1886, Mis. No. 6246:—

Read—the following letter from J. B. PENNINGTON, Esq., Collector of Tanjore, to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, dated Tanjore, 26th June 1886, No. 4169:—

Under section 9, Regulation VII of 1817, I have the honor to report as follows on the Annadana kattalai chattram attached to the Sri Tyagarajaswami temple at Tiruválúr.

2. This chattram is a minor branch of the great temple of Sri Tyagarajaswami at Tiruválúr, out of the revenues of which it is maintained. It has also a ready-money allowance of Rs. 1,079-6-9 * paid annually from the public treasury under the authority conveyed in G.Os., Nos. 302 and 576, dated 6th April 1852 and 11th June 1857.

	Rs.	A.	P.
* Annadana kattalai chattram ...	743	6	9
Total ...	1,079	6	9

3. The charity to be kept up consists of—(1) shelter to all travellers; (2) distribution of food to Brahmins every day and night, and rations of uncooked rice with the necessary condiments to pilgrims and others who object to receive cooked food; (3) a water-pandal during the hot season; (4) lights at night; and (5) pagoda service.

4. The guardian to the minors of the Vadapathimangalam estate and Kuppani Ammal, widow of the late proprietor of the estate, reported that the charity was founded in the days of Chokkappa Mudaliar of Vadapathimangalam; that the affairs of the institution were for some time managed by the chief member of the family; that it was under Government management till 1846, when it was transferred to Vaithilinga Pandara Sannadhi, the present trustee, from whom a muchilika was taken by Government in 1847; that the income from the endowment is misappropriated by the trustee; and that the charity is not properly conducted as would appear from an examination of the last three years' accounts of receipts and charges of the institution. On this report the deputy tahsildar of Tiruválúr was called upon to inquire into the case. From his report it appears that the Pandara Sannadhi was unable to produce any accounts of income derived from lands, &c., assigned for the maintenance of the Annadana kattalai, and that when asked for them, said that no accounts had been kept since Fasli 1288, not even daily accounts, because the curnams had not attended to their business in consequence of their not having been regularly paid. As the deputy tahsildar points out, this statement by itself is enough to show that the institution is mismanaged and its income misappropriated, and he recommends accordingly that the charity may be taken under the management of the district board. The tahsildar of Negapatam and the Head Assistant Collector agree with him in this view. Several complaints about the mismanagement of the institutions (Annadana kattalai and Abishaka kattalai), under the charge of the Pandara Sannadhi, have been made by the merchants and other residents of Tiruválúr. In these circumstances, I am of opinion that the ready-money allowance of Rs. 743-6-9 † should be withheld if the Board deem fit, pending the civil suit, which, in the capacity of a panchayatdar of the Sri Tyagarajaswami temple on behalf of the minor of the Vadapathimangalam estate, I propose to file against the Pandara Sannadhi under Act XX of 1863.

† Rs. 1,079-6-9—Rs. 336 appropriated for the maintenance of the Hanumar chattram referred to in the last paragraph.

5. This is not the first instance of misappropriation and mismanagement on the part of Vaithilinga Pandara Sannadhi which has come to notice. He was also placed in charge of the Hanumar chattram at Tiruvâlûr, a branch chattram of the one under reference, and maintained at a cost of Rs. 336 out of Rs. 1,079-6-9 assigned for the above Annadana kattalai chattram, on behalf of the district board. On the complaint of a traveller of the Chinglepat district, inquiries were made regarding the mismanagement of the chattram by the Pandara Sannadhi, which resulted in its transfer to the management of the deputy tahsildar of Tiruvâlûr in 1884 on behalf of the district board.

Reference, dated 9th July 1886.

The Collector is requested to give the No. and date of the Board's Proceedings regarding the Hanumar chattram referred to in paragraph 5 of his letter. It is not clear from his letter whether he wishes the Board to apply to Government for their consent to the transfer of the superintendence and management of the Annadana kattalai chattram to the district board. The consent of the district board is necessary.
