Sir,

I have the honour to forward, for favour of disposal, letter No. 2644, dated the 12th April 1919, from the District Magistrate, Civil & Military Station, Bangalore, regarding the proposed visit of Mrs. Weeksler to Yercaud. In this connection I would invite a reference to my confidential letter to you No. 29-C/258 dated 18th February 1919, and its enclosure.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

H. V. Cobb.

RESIDENT.

BJ

Weeksler who has been recently interned at Yercaud. She is a British subject by birth but she must be treated as a hostile alien according to the Government of India. Letter No. 3000-3101 (Home Department/Political) dated the 15th September 1918.

I enclose a copy of a letter dated the 11th April '19 received from Mrs. Weeksler which explains the object of her journey and shall be glad to know whether the Government of Madras permit such visits to internees.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Letter dated 11-4-19 from Mrs. K. Weckler, Sydney Park Hotel, Bangalore, to T. J. Tasker, Esquire, Magistrate and Collector, Civil and Military Station, Bangalore.

I beg to send in my application for a license to travel to Yercaud to see my husband on important business matters, as I am not quite acquainted with the working of the shops and which cannot be accurately explained by letter a personal interview is necessary besides I have to consult him on urgent private family affairs which has occurred since his departure and also now the most important business of my son being ordered for military duties. I should be grateful if you could allow me to go by Monday the 14th instant so as to be back here for Holy Week.

Thanking you.

To

The Hon'ble the Resident in Mysore, Bangalore.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. 3032, dated ~~17-4-19~~ 17-4-19 forwarding a request from Mrs. Weeksler to go to Yercaud to see her husband in the prisoners' camp there, I am directed to inform ~~you~~ that there is no accommodation for women in the camp. It would therefore be necessary for any woman proceeding to Yercaud to see a relative in the camp to obtain accommodation outside the camp and to notify her address.

2. The Government regret that owing to the short notice given in your letter they were unable to consult the D.M. and the Supdt. of the camp in the matter and to arrive at a decision before the 23rd instant the date on which Mrs. Weeksler wished to leave Bangalore. The matter is now under correspondence with the D.M. Salem and a further communication will be sent later as regards the general question raised in the concluding portion of the letter from the Dist. Magte., C. and M., Station, Bangalore, No. 2644, dated 12-4-19.

(~~Board~~ Subject - Visit Mrs Weekslet to Yercaud)

Mrs Weekslet requested the Magistrate and Collector, Civil and Military Station, Bangalore, to allow her to go to Yercaud on the 14th inst to see her husband, a prisoner in the Civil Camp, on important business matter. The Magistrate has, however, sent to this Govt for the counter signature of the Chief Secy (it should be now Revl Spl Secy) a license allowing her to proceed to that place from 23rd to 30th April. As it is now ^{already} the 25th inst, the license may perhaps be altered so as to allow Mrs Weekslet to go to Yercaud between the 1st and 7th of May.

2. Attention is invited to the last para of the Magistrate's letter on page 2cf. It does not appear that visits of similar nature were ~~asked~~ asked for ^{of Mrs Weekslet} or allowed. As the visit ~~does not~~ appears to be very urgent perhaps the D.M. Salem may be consulted in the first instance.

from the 14th so as to have the advantage of the holidays. It is 163 late now so we may as well give the permission for the

The only objection to the lady's visit is apparently the possibility of an evasion of the censorship. It is however the intention beginning of this year. That objection is not very strong in this case.
