Sir,

MADRAS/STRAITS SERVICE. pp 3-ante

In reply to your letter No.2177 W-1 of 19th instant, we have the honor to enquire what class of accommodation will be required for the 23 Siamese Eurasians. We may mention that the 2nd class accommodation in the Madras/Straits steamers is very limited and we have already a large number of names on our "waiting list".

Under the Company's passenger regulations, European and and Eurasian ladies will not be allowed to travel as deck passengers

If it is decided that these passengers should travel 1st class, we can arrange to grant them all passages by the same steamer.

The following are the next few intended sailings hence to the Straits:-

S.S. "THONGWA" about 28th July 1920. — now too late
" "TEESTA" " 3rd August 1920 — or
" "T A R A" " 10th " "
" "THONGWA" " 18th " "

These dates are merely approximate and cannot be guaranteed.

Reference your letter dated the 22nd July regarding passages to Siamese [illegible]

Will you kindly say whether second class accommodation can be had for these persons by the end of this month at least? If not, please provide first class passages to all of them on S.S. "Thongwa". Please let me know whether you can provide passage (in the same steamer) for two Jugo Slavs, husband and wife, who are returning to Serbia. If second class passages are not available for them too t class may be provided.
