Indian Defence Force

Registration of ex-officers who are not members of His Majesty's Naval, Military or Air Forces—insisted on—officer commanding units to report to registering officers names of officers relinquishing commissions.

READ—the following papers :—

G.O. No. 510, Revenue (Special) (War), dated 13th November 1919.

ABSTRACT.—Communicating to all registration authorities for information and guidance letter from the Adjutant-General in India, No. 030072-1 (A.G.-3), dated the 6th November 1919, on the subject of the enrolment of civilians arriving in India in order that they may be available for service in the Indian Defence Force in any emergency.

II

Letter—from the General Officer Commanding, 9th (Secunderabad) Division.
To—the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.
Dated—Bangalore, the 25th March 1920.
No.—5483/58-C.S.

I have the honour to forward herewith for your information and guidance a copy of the Adjutant-General in India's letter No. 024002-2 (A.G.-3), dated 3rd March 1920.

I would invite a reference to Adjutant-General's No. 030072-1 (A.G.-3), dated 6th November 1919, forwarded under my No. 5483/37-C.S., dated 14th November 1919, relating to persons liable for registration. As the office of the Assistant Adjutant-General, Records, Bombay, has been abolished, Army Headquarters have been asked to notify what steps will be taken to notify you of officers and men who relinquish their commissions in India.

ENCLOSURE

Letter—from the Adjutant-General in India.
To—all General Officers Commanding, Divisions and Independent Brigades.
Dated—Delhi, the 3rd March 1920.
No.—024002-2 (A.G.-3).

I am directed to invite a reference to my No. 024002-1 (A.G.-3), dated 5th July 1919, and to say that during the present year, or so long as the Indian Defence Act, 1917, remains in operation, no person liable to perform military service under that Act, who retains rank as an officer of His Majesty's Forces on relinquishment of his commission, shall be required to undergo periodical training in the ranks of the Indian Defence Force, except at his own request.

It is of importance, however, that all ex-officers, who are no longer members of His Majesty's Naval, Military or Air Forces, should be registered under the Indian Defence Force Act, and that lists of all such ex-officers should be prepared and maintained in Brigade offices. The relaxation of the training regulations in their case does not relieve them from liability to serve in an emergency, and the preparation of lists will prove of value should effect be given to proposals now under consideration, which aim at the effective utilization, for the purposes of internal security, of the large numbers of those who have gained experience and developed valuable qualities as officers during the war.

Order—No. 181, Revenue (Special) (War), dated 17th May 1920.

Communicated to all the registration authorities for information and guidance.

G.O. No. 121, Revenue (Special) (War), dated 13th November 1919.

From the General Officer Commanding, Madras District, to the Secretary to Government, Madras, dated 13th November 1919.

I have the honor to forward herewith for your information and guidance a copy of the Assistant-General in India's letter No. 021002-2 (A.G.-3), dated 3rd March 1920.

I would advise a reference to Assistant-General's No. 08002-1 (A.G.-3), dated 6th November 1919, forwarded under my No. 548387-G-2, dated 1st November 1919, relating to persons liable for registration. As the office of the Assistant-General, General, Bombay, has been abolished, Army Headquarters have been asked to notify what steps will be taken to notify you of officers and men who relinquish their commissions in India.

When from the Assistant-General in India, to all Officers Commanding Divisions and Independent Brigades, dated 13th November 1919, under my No. 021002-2 (A.G.-3), dated 3rd March 1920, I am directed to invite a reference to my No. 021002-1 (A.G.-3), dated 3rd July 1919, and to say that during the period of year or so long as the Indian Defence Act, 1917, remains in operation, no person liable to perform military service under that Act, who remains in India as an officer of His Majesty's Forces on re-employment of his commission, shall be required to undergo periodic training in the ranks of the Indian Defence Force, except at the discretion of the Government.

It is of importance, however, that all ex-officers, who are no longer members of His Majesty's Naval, Military or Air Forces, should be registered under the Indian Defence Force Act and that lists of all such ex-officers should be prepared and maintained in Divisional offices. The relaxation of the training regulations in their case does not relieve them from liability to serve in an emergency and the preparation of lists will prove of value should effect be given to proposals now under consideration, which aim at the effective utilization for the purpose of internal security of the large numbers of those who have gained experience and developed valuable qualities as officers during the war.
