THE ADJUTANT GENERAL IN INDIA.

SIR,

In continuation of Army Department letter No. 15277, dated the 11th November 1919, I am directed to say that the Right Hon'ble the Secretary of State for India has decided* that the entire cost on account of the contingent sent to attend the peace celebrations held in England during July 1919 should be debited to Indian revenues under the grant and head of account affected, with the exception of that on account of board, lodging and entertainments of the contingent while in England, which will be met by His Majesty's Imperial Government.

I am,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

(Sd.) A. SHAIRP, Colonel,

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.
