⊕ Adamma deputed a vakil alleging that she never actually sold her share but mortgaged it for 45 pagodas. Her counsel the incumbent too and requests its registry in her name ~~[illegible]~~ characterising the Kayam document as forged. The authorities that attested it and the writer the Karnam of the village deposed that the transaction though indifferently worded in the Kayam document was a final relinquishment of the rights of the executors for the share in question for good and was not intended or viewed in the light of a mortgage.
Since the document is genuine and as the incumbent too is in the enjoyment of the share even in dispute, I confirm it as detailed above.
She can refer ~~[illegible]~~ her petition to a Court of Justice. B[illegible] 23/4/63
