

The house is said to have been acquired by a man for the purpose of the preservation of a collection of the various plants of the country. The collection is said to be of great value.

22/6/61.

Rel. by Mr. 1

Rel.

S. No 635

Rel. by Mr.

Rel. by Mr.

Rel. by Mr. 1

Case No 1

Rel. by Mr.

Rel. by Mr.

Rel. by Mr.

Rel. by Mr.

Rel. by Mr.

Rel. by Mr.

Rel. by Mr.

Rel. by Mr.

There is no Pagoda in existence from the last forty years - No Pagoda - The same is immemorial matter - It is entered as Case 3 of the 1870 - It is having fully perfected dated 1870 - Since 1861 - But it is entered matter - It was in B statement furnished for my guidance from the Central Office - There it is brought as Case on the Reg.

To be fully perfected

522
3/12/69

Rel. by Mr. 1

Rel. by Mr. 1

Rel. by Mr. 1

Rel. by Mr. 1

Rel. by Mr. 1

Rel. by Mr. 1