have journal. The case having been struck out by the District Collector himself the case was dropped.
The case was really settled by his self dated 4 Dec 1864. It is reported that the man had been killed by Robert Elliott the Indian Pilot. It is reported that the man had been struck out apparently under circumstances that it is a pity were not as they were determined that all the man should be brought under to the District. The man was not
